White Case Boosts GOP, Hall Declares

Party Chairman Says It Has Given Big Lift to Republican Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall said today the Harry Dexter White case has given a "tremendous lift" to the GOP in advance of next year's congressional election campaigns.

But Democratic senators said they doubt any advantage the Republicans may have gained will be lasting. They predicted the administration's farm, tax and spending programs will be regarded by the voters as far more important.

Charges Have Helped

Hall said in an interview he believes the charges of laxity toward Communists in government, made by Atty. Gen. Brownell against former President Truman, "have helped us."

"The impression I have gained by talking to people all over the country is that this matter has given a tremendous lift to our organization," he said.

Although Hall didn't say so, he apparently holds the view that Brownell's sensational charges—that Truman promoted White despite FBI reports of White's alleged espionage activities—put the Republicans back on the offensive after they had lost special congressional elections in Wisconsin and New Jersey.

Brownell's charges, made Nov. 6, precipitated an immediate storm of Republican and Democratic outcries, and today there were signs of international repercussions.

Canadian Surprised

A State Department spokesman said Canadian Ambassador A.D.P. Heeney called on Undersecretary W. Bedell Smith yesterday and "expressed surprise" at the public disclosure the FBI had information from Canadian government sources in 1946 about White.

Brownell made the disclosure Tuesday when, in testifying before the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, he stripped the secrecy label from an FBI letter to the White House in February 1946. This was about the time that White, now dead, was promoted from assistant secretary of the Treasury to U.S. representative on the International Monetary Fund.

COUNTERSPY AND FAMILY. 13 years of ostracism over, William H. Teto, FBI undercover man who infiltrated the Communists as a counterspy in Ashby, Mass., celebrates with his family after telling his story in Cambridge, Mass., before investigating committee headed by Senator Joseph McCarthy (R) of Wisconsin. With the 53-year-old upholsterer are son Paul, 14, daughter Kay, 7, and wife Sadie. The committee was probing Reds in GE plants.

Hall and Mrs. Heady Moved To Death Row

Condemned Pair Wait Execution; No Appeals Planned, Lawyers Say

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., (AP) — Carl Austin Hall and Mrs Bonnie Heady today were held in death row behind the gray, forbidding walls of the Missouri Penitentiary.

The condemned kidnap-killers of little Bobby Greenlease were brought here late yesterday from Kansas City where they were sentenced to death Thursday. The 150-mile trip was made by automobile. The prisoners, in separate cars, were chained and under heavy guard.

They will die together in the gas chamber Dec. 18.

Immediately following their arrival at the prison they were "dressed in." The process, which required almost an hour, included the recording of weight, height and identifying marks. Photographs and fingerprints were taken. Each was given the usual disinfectant bath.

'Like Old Homecoming'

While they were being fingerprinted, officials said Mrs. Heady remarked to Hall, "this is almost like old homecoming."

Hall, who was released from the prison last April after serving a year and three months for robbery, did not answer.

Officers said he remarked: "Lots of people are in here because of liquor. They usually learn too late."

The pair was issued regulation prison clothing and placed in cells in death row. Officials said they will not be allowed outside their cells, except for baths, until their execution.

Attorneys for both have said they do not plan an appeal. The death sentence was imposed by U.S. District Judge Albert L Reeves after a three-day advisory trial.

The Greenlease child, the 6-year-old son of a multi-millionaire Kansas City automobile dealer, was abducted from his private school Sept. 28. He was slain the same day.

Both Pleaded Guilty

Hall and Mrs. Heady were arrested in St. Louis Oct. 6 and pleaded guilty at their arraignment Nov. 3. The sole job of the jury in the advisory proceeding was to determine whether the couple should pay the supreme penalty.

In Kansas City last night, a minister said Hall had prayed for forgiveness during the time he was held in the Jackson County Jail.

Marion County Bank May Buy Old Marion 'Y'

Option To Purchase Building Taken; Plans For Use Not Disclosed

The Marion County Bank today announced it had taken an option to purchase the old YMCA building at 139 S. State St. The building has been on the block since the new 'Y' on E. Church St. was placed under construction.

Russell C. Snare, executive vice president of the bank, announced the signing of the option but bank officials said this morning they had no immediate announcement to make concerning plans for the use of the property.

History of the old YMCA building goes back 60 years to 1893 when it was opened after a construction period of two years.

Idea for the organization of a YMCA in Marion was started in February of 1891 when a small group of men gathered in the Free Baptist Church and formed what was then known as the "Young Men's Gospel Workers' Union." After meeting with little success that winter the group disbanded for the summer but again started meeting the following fall.

After several of the members attended a Young Men's Christian Association convention, the group decided to affiliate with that organization. This original group of 60 men was joined by about 300 others who paid dues.

On April 13, 1892, the group, which by this time had grown to about 530, met at the Courthouse and decided to organize as a YMCA and to rent rooms to hold meetings.

However, Amos H. Kling offered to donate the ground for a YMCA building if $15,000 could be raised within 30 days. This was accomplished by means of public subscription and the building was constructed at a cost of $45,000.

It was opened in 1893 and was in continuous use as a YMCA until this October when the new building was dedicated.

Toll in Korea Expected To Hit 30,000

4,000 Now Listed As Missing Are To Be Declared Dead Soon

WASHINGTN (AP)—The U.S. battle death toll in Korea will pass 30,000 when the Pentagon begins next January to close out its books on American casualties in the conflict.

After the truce and completion of prisoner exchanges, the death figures stood at 25,604 and the missing at 7,955. The Army yesterday announced confirmation of 400 more deaths among those previously listed as missing.

4,000 Presumed Dead

The Army announced yesterday that, unless new information appears by January, it will declare 4,000 men listed as missing for more than a year as "presumed dead." The remaining Army missing, unless they are found, will be declared dead one full year after their disappearance.

The Air Force, with 671 listed as missing, said it will declare 170 presumed dead next month.

The Marine Corps has 493 missing and the Navy 78, but neither said they had any plans to declare any of them dead in the near future.

The U.S casualty total in Korea —142,277 killed, wounded or missing—remains the same It is a preliminary figure, however, and is being checked and re-checked as new information gets to the Pentagon.

Move Foreshadowed

The change in status from missing to killed was foreshadowed in early October when the Defense Department said most of the missing must eventually be presumed dead.

The declaration of presumptive death is needed to comply with the Missing Persons act. This law expires next Jan. 31, but the Defense Department is expected to ask for an extension so survivors of the missing and probably dead men may receive the benefits to which they are entitled.

The Army has set forth informa-

Arabs Demand Compensation From Israelis

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The Arab bloc worked over plans today to get more teeth into a proposed Big Three resolution censuring Israel for the recent killing of 53 Jordan border villagers.

Backed by Lebanon and Pakistan in the U.N. Security Council, Jordan expressed complete dissatisfaction with the Western resolution. They assailed it as too weak and because it did not demand Israeli compensation for the loss of Arab life and property in the Oct. 14-15 raid on Kibya village.

Ask Strong Censure

The United States, Britain and France have asked the 11-nation council to vote the "strongest censure" of Israel for the attack, which the Jewish state maintains was in retaliation for a long series of Arab provocations.

The Big Three resolution asks for Israeli guarantees against future assaults and calls for reinforcement of the U.N. truce observer team watching over the tense Arab-Jewish borders.

Israel also has voiced bitter opposition to the Western resolution as "one-sided and discriminatory" and a "big step backward from peace."

Non-Member of Council

Although a member of the U.N., Israel is not a member of the council and has no vote there. Jordan, a non-member of the 60-nation world organization, was invited with Israel to present its views to the council.

An Israeli spokesman said its chief delegate, Abba Eban, may suggest the Western resolution be dropped—or at least amended—in favor of broader proposals on the whole Palestine armistice issue. A member of the council must sponsor such a suggestion, and there seemed little hope that Israel would find such a sponsor at this time.

County Prospect Good

Rain Brightens Hunters' Hopes To Begin Season

BULLETIN

COLUMBUS, Ohio, (AP) — The Ohio hunting season is "definitely scheduled to open Monday at 9 a.m.," the state wildlife council announced today.

Prospects of opening the small game hunting season in Ohio Monday brightened last night when rain fell over most of the state.

The state wildlife council, which delayed the season for a week, meets Sunday to decide if the rain sufficiently reduced the forest fire hazard.

Hunters' chances of taking to the fields are expected to get even brighter today and Sunday The weather forecast calls for some rain today and rain again tomorrow.

HUNTERS IN MARION County and the area should encounter good hunting this year, O. H. Neimeyer of Prospect, County game protector reports.

Neimeyer said "everything will be good" with the exception of rabbits. He said there does not seem to be as many rabbits this year as last year all over the state. Pheasant hunting should be good for it was a good hatching season for pheasants, he said.

The bird and rabbit season is to open at 9 a.m. Monday and the raccoon and opposum gun season with dogs starts at 6 p.m. Monday.

Several plants in Marion have indicated they will close Monday to permit employes to hunt the first day while remaining plants expect a large number of workers to take advantage of the opening day of hunting. City sanitation department employes will have the day off for hunting purposes also.

NEIMEYER REMINDED hunters of the bag limits. Hunters may have four rabbits in their possession at any time while the limit on pheasants is two a day or four in their possession after the first day. Limit on grouse is three a day with six in the hunter's possession after the first day. Hunters can bag two Hungarian partridge a day and have four in their possession after the first day. Hours for hunting this game are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Neimeyer warned. The rabbit and grouse seasons extend to Jan. 1 while the pheasant season ends Dec. 5 and the Hungarian partridge season lasts until Dec. 1.

Coon and oppossum hunters may have four of each in their possession at any time. The season runs to Jan. 31. Hunters may track the animals with their dogs until Jan. 31. Trapping season for coon, opposum, muskrat and mink is from Dec. 1 to Jan. 31. There are no trapping limits, Neimeyer explained. Neimeyer warned that there must be no traps set before 9 a.m. Dec. 1.

NEIMEYER SAID he expected a lot of hunters out the first day and warned them not to hunt in big groups. He warned hunters to secure digests of game laws so they could abide by the laws and to have written permission from land owners before hunting on their property. Neimeyer warned

Federal Funds Received for Hospital Here

The city-county Board of Hospital Commissioners received $293,584.97 this morning as the first payment of federal funds for the new Marion General Hospital

The check has been turned over to City Auditor Elmer Shaw.

The money came from the Ohio Department of Health, an allocation by the state of funds received from the federal Public Health Service.

The payment was authorized after 25 per cent of the construction work was completed It represents about 30 per cent of the little more than $850,000 of federal funds which will go into the new hospital.

Future payments will be authorized upon the completion of 25 per cent units of construction.

Vietnamese, French Take Part in Attack

Assault on Mountain Center Supported by U.S.-Supplied Planes

DIEN BIEN PHU, Indochina (AP)—Thousands of French and Vietnamese paratroopers have jumped deep into mountain territory of the Communist-led Vietminh to grab a major base for new raids on their guerrilla foes.

The French High Command announced their forces, supported by U.S.-supplied fighter bombers, yesterday seized the big rebel war base of Dien Bien Phu, 180 miles west of Hanoi.

Gen. Rene Cogny, French commander in north Indochina, said the capture:

1. Provides a center of the rallying and training of partisan fighters from the pro-French Thai tribes and for raids by them and the French forces on the Vietminh.

2. Removes a major threat to the Thai tribal capital of Lai Chau, 50 miles to the north. The Vietminh failed to capture Lai Chau in their sweeping offensive last winter which seized large areas of the Thai country.

3. Takes from the rebels a potential springboard for a renewed attack on the kingdom of Laos, whose northern frontier is less than 10 miles south of Dien Bien Phu.

4. Seizes "highly important" Vietminh base in the center of a rice growing area and at the crossroads of supply routes to the northeast and to the south.

Cogny said the French dropped "many battalions" on the broad plain around Dien Bien Phu and they quickly captured the town and its airfield. Fighter bombers flew more than 100 sorties against the area.

In previous such paratroop raids deep in enemy territory, the French have withdrawn after destroying enemy arms and stores. This time, said Cogny, they would remain and shortly would be reinforced by airborne troops and war supplies poured in through the captured airfield.

The French claimed to have inflicted heavy casualties on the Red-commanded rebels. It was believed the Reds had about one regiment of 3,000 men around the town.

LAUGH'S THE SAME. President Eisenhower was walking to the gymnasium on the campus of the Catholic University in Washington, D. Aviation Plant Local Fined for Strike Violence

Columbus Judge Says UAW Union Officials Tried Intimidation

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A judge, who said two union officials had tried to intimidate him, last night fined Local 927 of the CIO United Auto Workers $50,000 for strike violence at the North American Aviation plant here

Judge Joseph K. Harter suspended half the fine on condition of "good behavior" and provided the union make restitution for damages.

The judge found the union in contempt of his order limiting picketing and banning interference with workers entering the plant.

In a statement from the bench, the judge said one union leader had threatened to "take care of this judge" in next year's election, and that Elmer Adkins, president of Local 927, had said "if I ruled against the union there would undoubtedly be a lot of union votes cast against me."

The contempt charges, pressed by the company, resulted from incidents at the plant gates Tuesday Nine persons were injured slightly and about 75 automobiles damaged when union men tried to prevent workers from entering the plant.

The union claims the strike of its 12,500 members in Columbus

17 Diabetes Cases Turned Up in Tests

Seventeen suspected cases of diabetes were turned up Friday, as 100 persons took the free diabetes detection tests offered this week by Marion County physicians.

Previously only one case had been detected among those who had taken the test. Friday's turnout was the largest reported so far this week by Dr. Charles Wilson, chairman of the Marion County diabetes detection campaign.

Free tests will be given again today by county doctors cooperating in the one-week program sponsored by the American Diabetes Association.

Senator Urges Change in U.S. Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)— Sen. Gillette (D—Ia) today urged a complete overhaul of U. S. foreign policy and programs "to bring them in line with President Eisenhower's latest proposals."

"Instead of a race to build the world into two massive military camps, we should put our emphasis on universal knowledge, understanding and cooperation, as the President said," Gillette, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in an interview

A drastic cutback in multi-billion dollar outlays for military buildups here and abroad is the "only possible way to carry out campaign pledges of tax reductions and a balanced budget," Gillette added.

The Iowa senator referred to Eisenhower's informal speech here Thursday to a Catholic University convocation at which he received an honorary doctor of laws degree.

The President said there was no peace in military strength alone and urged unity "among those who think as we do" to convince others that:

"Those who seek peace in terms of military strength alone, I am certain, are doomed to end up in the agony of the battlefield."

The President said all the peoples of the world—if not the rulers of some—share a "longing for peace."

Britain's Queen Starts Tour of World Monday

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth will leave the fogs of Britain Monday night for sunny southern islands and a trip around the world.

The Queen and the Duke of Edinburg will be away six months on a hand-shaking trip designed to give thousands of her subjects a glimpse of their 27-year-old Queen. It will be the first time a British sovereign has made a world tour.

Inevitably parts of the trip will take on all the pageantry of royal occasions There will be receptions, investures, loyal addresses, civic welcomes, state banquets But the royal couple, who love to travel, will also have time for sightseeing.

They leave London Monday night in the American-built stratocruiser Canopus, piloted by Capt. Anthony Lorraine.

Medical Student Dies In Bowling Green Crash

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — A German medical student who had been in this country only a year died in a collision between two cars three miles east of here on U S 6 last night.

The victim was Walter Burgmayer, 27, an intern at Methodist Hospital in Peoria, Ill. In critical condition was Guenther Schmitt, who was riding with Burgmayer. Hospital officials said Schmitt was about the same age as Burgmayer.

William Benton, 25, of Lakewood, Ohio, driver of the second car, received minor bruises.

Alger Hiss Parole Bid

Up for Review of Board

WASHINGTON (AP)—Alger Hiss, whose first request for parole was unanimously rejected last year, gets another chance in an annual review of his case today by the Federal Parole Board

Hiss, a former State Department employe, was convicted Jan. 25, 1950, on charges of lying when he denied under oath that he passed government secrets to a Soviet spy ring before World War II.

He began serving a five-year sentence March 22 1951, at the Lewisburg, Pa., Federal Penitentiary.

'Bless the Lord,' Says Mom

Family Greets Son Who 'Went Red,' but Repented

WASHINGTON (AP) — "My son! My son! Bless the Lord!"

Shouting these words and waving her arms in the air, Bessie Dickenson early today rushed into the arms of her son, the prisoner of war who embraced communism and then changed his mind.

It was the first time Cpl. Edward Dickenson had seen his mother in more than three years and for a breathless moment a score of reporters and photographers stood mutely by.

Then pandemonium broke loose. Photo bulbs snapped and questions came from everywhere. In the midst of all this, the Dickensons—mother, father, son and sister—kept on embracing and weeping.

"I thought he was dead," cried Mrs. Dickenson. "But the Lord has given me back my son."

Ed's father, 73-year-old Van Buren Dickenson, kissed the 23-year-old soldier on the cheek

"God bless you," said the elderly farmer from Cracker's Neck, Va.

The family had about 10 minutes together at Andrews Air Force Base. Then Ed was placed in a bus and sent off to the Army's Walter Reed Medical Center for a physical checkup—"just like any other POW," said an Army officer.

"It feels wonderful to be home," Ed said.

Then, in response to a question, he said: "Yes, I'm definitely going to reenlist. I haven't spent any time in the Army I've been in prison practically the whole time."

Midweek Programs Planned

Sunday Church Services Will Stress Thanksgiving

Thansgiving Sunday will be observed by Marion churches on Sunday morning at worship hours, with special sermons by pastors, and music with appropriate religious and patriotic theme. In addition to the Sunday reference to Thanksgiving, some churches will hold Thanksgiving Eve services or meet on the holiday to express gratitude for blessings of the year. Pastors have prepared special sermons.

Two union Thanksgiving services will have the backing of the Marion County Ministerial Association this year. One will be Wednesday night at First Church of the Brethren when Rev. F. E. Kline of Forest Lawn Presbyterian Church preaches. There will be special music by the Forest Lawn Church Choir. Rev Carl Laeur is host pastor.

The annual community Thanksgiving service for Marion will be Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in Wesley Methodist Church.

Guest speaer will be Rev. Mel Martin of Cincinnati who is holding special meetings at Trinity Baptist Church. Music will be by the choir and organist of the host church. Rev. H. V. Falor of Oakland EUB Church, president of the ministerial association, will preside, and taking part will be the host pastor, Rev. W. Lincoln Stafford.

Offerings at both services will be used for Church World Service Contributions of warm clothing for Korea in particular will be accepted at both services.

ARRANGEMENTS for the services were under auspices of the Special Days Committee of the ministerial association. Rev. J. Paul Goebel of First Evangelical and Reformed Church, Rev. Frederick W. Leech of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, and Rev. L. E. Ames of First EUB Church.

Harvest Festival service will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Sunday, and the Every Member Canvass will be launched.

Members of the St. Paul's English Lutheran Florence Knauss Missionary Guild will conduct the morning worship service Sunday at the church. Mrs. Paul Knauss, for whom the unit was named, will give a thankoffering address. "With Praise to God." Mrs. Don Harraman will serve as acolyte, and ushers will be Mrs. Harold Smith, Mrs. Hillis Brown, and Mrs. L. M. Lessley. The speaker is active in missionary work of the denomination on the national level as well as in the state and locally and gives much time to organizing societies, speaking and assisting in other ways in the mission program. Officers of the local guild are Mrs. Mildred Thacker, Mrs. Carl Laib, Mrs. Smith, and Mrs. Harraman. This annual thankoffering service conducted by the guild is arranged to coincide with the Twenty-fifth Sunday After Trinity service.

THE ANNUAL Thanksgiving service at Emanuel Lutheran Church will be held on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Forming the processional will be the members of Boy Scout Troop 15, and the Junior, Intermediate and Senior Choirs. The sermon will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. M. E Hollensen.

On Thursday at St. Mary Catholic Church, the three special Thanksgiving Day Masses will be at the 7, 7:30, and 8:15 a.m. services.

Thanksgiving morning communion services of Epworth Methodist Church will be at 8, 9, and 11 o'clock for both families and individuals.

A public Thanksgiving service of First Church of Christ, Scientist, will be at 11 a.m. Thursday. Selections on the subject of praise and thanksgiving to God will be read from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, in a specially prepared lesson-sermon on "Thanksgiving." Latter portion of the service will be devoted to spontaneous expressions of gratitude by Christian Scientist members for "God's goodness as shown in spiritual growth, healings, and other blessings."

MID-WEEK prayer service of First Church of the Nazarene Wednesday night will be centered around the idea of "thanksgiving to God for his many blessings." Each one present will be given opportunity to testify concerning "things for which I am especially thankful at this season."

Special recognition of Thanksgiving Day will be given at the mid-week prayer service of the Oak Knoll Baptist Chapel Thursday night, each one present taking part. The Moody Bible Institute course being conducted on Thursday nights will be postponed until the following week.

A service of praise and thanksgiving at First EUB Church will be at morning worship hour Nov. 29 when the autumn rally and offering for the church fund will be featured.

AGAIN THIS YEAR, Marion churches will join in the world-wide Thanksgiving to Christmas Bible reading program sponsored by the American Bible Society. "The Book of Hope" will be the theme for the tenth year of the growing, nonsectarian movement to inspire all readers, regardless of class or creed, with increased interest in the Bible.

The guide to reading suggested for the period includes passages from both the Old and New Testaments. Those who participate are urged to read from a Bible translation of their own choice. The American Bible Society selects through a poll of ministers each year a series of Scripture passages, and lists one for each day. The purpose is to have people all over the world read the same verses during the same day. No financial appeal is involved.

The sponsoring committee is headed by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, and includes former presidents Herbert A. Hoover and Harry S. Truman, among others.

IN A LETTER to the society President Eisenhower declared, "I am very happy to learn of the American Bible Society's plans for this year's observance of World-wide Bible Reading. The custom of encouraging study of the Bible, especially during the period between Thanksgiving and Christmas, is one which I heartily endorse. I feel that in America's yearly life the period beginning with our day of Thanksgiving and ending with the most holy day of the Christian calendar is, indeed, a most fitting time for this needful custom to be emphasied.

"May the many who join you in this year's observance of World-wide Bible Reading be inspired by the practice during this period and, no less, throughout the year ahead."

The idea of Worldwide Bible Reading was started when a lonely young Marine on Guadalcanal wrote to ask his parents to join him in reading the same passage from the Bible each day. The idea was passed on to the society, and the program became worldwide under its auspices and those of related Bible societies throughout the world.

For Thanksgiving Day, the whole of Psalm 103 is recommended, followed by Psalms 23, and 43 for the remaining days of that week, and Psalms 130 and 147 through Nov. 30, and portions of Jeremiah, Luke, and Acts, for the first five days of December as follows, Jeremiah 17:1-15; Luke 5:27-39; Luke 6:1-26, Luke 6:27-49, and Acts 2.

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

What Isaac Watts was to England, William Williams was to Wales

THE WELSH ARE singing people. They sing of great events, of heroes in battle, of rolling hills and the seas that beat on their native shore. And, as far back as the sixth century, the Welsh have sung hymns.

William Williams was educated for a career in medicine but changed his course to the ministry. He was an ordained deacon in the Church of England at 23 and probably would have become a clergyman in the Established Church had he not been warned against the preachings of such "fanatical dissenters" as John Wesley, George Whitefield and Howell Harris who preached in barns, cow pastures and on street corners.

Such warning was bad psychology for an inquisitive mind like that of William Williams. He straightway sought out Howell Harris, found him preaching from a grave slab in a cemetery while worshipers filed out of their regular church service to hear his message.

Williams joined a branch of the dissenters who called themselves "Calvinistic Methodists." Unrestrained by formalities of the Established Church, the self-styled evangelist rode up and down Wales like John Wesley rode up and down England, preaching everywhere to everybody who would listen. In 43 years he traveled 95,500 miles delivering sermons to crowds that numbered 10,000 and more. Once he preached to a congregation of 80,000 and noted in his journal, "God strengthened me to speak so loud that most could hear." He was bronzed by the sun, soaked by rain, chilled by snow and beaten by mobs, but only death stopped his tongue in 1791.

IN ENGLAND THE PEOPLE sang hymns of Isaac Watts later those of Charles Wesley, John Newton and William Cowper. But the song-loving Welsh people had comparatively few hymns in their native language. So, what Isaac Watts was to England, William Williams became to Wales. He wrote 800 hymns just for his countrymen. Given below is his best. Williams wrote it in 1745 but it became so popular that he translated it into English 27 years later and its popularity still holds after nearly two centuries.

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim thro' this barren land;
am weak, but Thou art mighty,
Hold me with Thy powerful hand;
Bread of Heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain,
Whence the healing waters flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through:
Strong Deliverer,
Be Thou still my Strength and Shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside,
Death of death's and hell's destruction,
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
will ever give to Thee.

A Sermonette

By REV. VINTON E. BUSLER
Former Pastor of Epworth Methodist Church

Job 2:9. "Then said his wife to him (Job), 'Do you still hold fast your integrity? Curse God and die."

Philippians 4:21, "All the saints greet you, especially those of Caesar's household."

Gratitude is a commodity that is not in oversupply among our present generation, prone to take every gift from God as coming to us. If they do not come we are peevish and willing to "curse God and die." The wisdom of the President of the United States is manifested in the Thanksgiving Proclamation given for this year. He admonishes us to go to our house of worship "bow before God in contrition for our sins and in supplicance for wisdom." He strikes at the source of gratitude, repentance for sins and prayer for wisdom.

Job finds himself in a serious but dramatic situation. First a runner falls prostrate at his feet and tells that the Sabeans have slain the oxen, the asses and the servants and only the messenger lives to tell the story. Scarcely has he ceased speaking when another runner appears and tells Job that a fire from God burned the sheep and the servants and only one is left to tell about it. He steps aside and another tragic story is poured into the ears of Job. The Chaldeans made a raid upon the camels and took them and slew the servants and just one is left. To climax it all, winds destroyed the house in which his family had taken shelter and one story teller remained. Then Job gave one of the great pronouncements of all time. "Naked I came from my mother's womb and naked shall I return: Blessed be the name of the Lord." Job, though he liked his possessions and loved his family told us once and for all that gratitude is deeper than possessions and even family.

THE SECOND portion of the text is from the story of our noble Christian ancestors who are passing through great tribulation, slaves in the household of Caesar, sending their salutations to their brethren from the prison. You can be thankful in spite of political slavery, civic encirclement and the absence of things.

Be thankful that we are better situated than some one else who is suffering more than we. This is an attitude taken by more people than you can possibly think. I find it very easy for myself to fall into that type of gratitude. I do not know how Christian this attitude is, but I do know that it is the philosoohy of millions today in America. This has usually referred to bodily suffering. If he suffers more, I am thankful that I do not suffer as much as he, that God is not trying me more than I can stand. My bodily suffering is matched by the grace of God. If gratitude rests upon no other foundation than this, many of the suffering ones of humanity live in courage and hope.

MANY YEARS AGO when the late Bishop Lauress J. Birney was walking on the wall of China, someone showed him a plant that looked dwarfed indeed. Then the demonstrator told him that this was the parent plant of a bloom that he saw in the Boston Flower Show which weasured 12 inches in diameter. Man had used the right soil, the proper temperature and the needed moisture to grow the beautiful flower that was taking prizes at the show. I believe that God has a climate in which men and women, boys and girls, can grow the fine virtue called "gratitude." Selfish streaks in us are as foreign as a bit of sand in the eye and God's grace is sufficient to bring His children into a "cultivated gratitude."

It just bubbles out all over them. They may be as poor as the proverbial church mouse, without any scholastic training but just thankful all of the time and under every condition, never comparative, never cultivated, it is as much of their being as breathing, closer than hands and feet. I have been overwhelmed at times by such gratitude. Like St. Paul, they had "learned to be content in any state of life.

GOD'S WILL, my will, God's way, my way; God always dealing with me as God, and I, His son. Many of you are familiar with what I have been through since April 11, 1953. No human being could bear it alone. I am thankful for my skillful surgeon, I wish that I might call him by name in this sermonette, the consecrated nurses, the well organized and finely directed City Hospital and the "wonder drugs." All of these elicit from me a song of gratitude. Even after they had done their best, the disease could do its worst but for one great fact in my life, "God is here." I trembled when I felt that even the Rock of Ages was shaking under me but it was not the Rock of Ages, it was I who did the shaking. If I am to have and hold a gratitude in time of adversity I must be wholly committed to God and His care. I must be fully conquered by Him.

Our Puritan forebears could say that they were grateful in a comparative way. They had more than the year before, at least one-half of them alive But compared to the possessions of some of their contemporaries, they had little Their gratitude was founded upon a trust in God, a will to do God's will, His way and His plan.

Only God-committed people can say "thank you" when the day is dark and the road long.

Confident Living

By NORMAN VINCENT PEALE

The Practice of Thankfulness

A man I met at a friend's home recently taught me a lesson worth passing on this Thanksgiving season.

DR. PEALE

We had been talking about prayer and, because I'm a minister and presumably more conversant with the subject, I had been allowed to take up more than my share of the conversation. Therefore, all of us were a bit surprised when a man who, up to that point, had taken no part in our discussion spoke up.

"You know," he said, "I agree with you that prayers can be answered. But I don't agree that asking is the best way of praying. I try to make my prayers prayers of thanks and I find that these prayers have changed my life."

"How have they done that?" I asked.

"Well," he replied, "I've prayed all my life. I came from a family that believed in prayer and I grew up believing in it myself. Whenever I wanted something, I prayed for it. I found out soon enough that I just didn't get everything I wanted and prayed for. And I began to get bitter about it. I stopped going to church; I stopped praying. But things didn't come my way any easier.

"It wasn't that things went bad for me," he continued. "They did not. I got along, but somehow didn't seem to get as far as I should. Something seemed to be holding me back. Then my wife became seriously ill. I thought for a while I was going to lose her, but they pulled her through. It seemed almost a miracle, and I went to church to give thanks. I came out of that church feeling better and happier than I had in years. I had made a great discovery."

"What was that" one of the other guests asked.

HE THOUGHT for a moment before answering. Then he spoke and seemed to emphasize each word: "I discovered that the best way to obtain real results from prayer is to practice the art of thankfulness.

"Up to that time, I had used my prayers only for asking and never thought about giving thanks. Now I divide my prayer into 10 per cent asking and 90 per cent thanking. I have found that by being thankful for what is given to me, many other blessings come my way. That is because the act of thanks-giving is positive and affirmative and starts power to flowing; at least, it did for me," he concluded.

You can, indeed, obtain better results from your prayers if you practice the art of thankfulness. As the hymn says, "count your blessings" and thank Him from whom they flow. This emphasis on appreciation for what you have will give the kind of spirit which will bring new blessings to you.

I CAN SUGGEST one technique which will help you to do this. A friend of mine, Kenneth Ginliger, who heads the publishing firm of Hawthorn Books, has just sent me two new books which you can use, called "The Protestant Year 1954" and "The Catholic Year 1954." They have been prepared, respectively, by the staffs of the Christian Herald and the National Council of Catholic Men. Each contains an inspirational entry for every day of the new year, suggested Bible readings, devotional information and space in which to write diary entries.

If you provide yourself with such a diary, you can list, each day, the things for which you are thankful and use the book as a source of positive inspiration in preparing your prayers. This listing of blessings is important for it will soon develop in you the thanksgiving psychology. Then, set aside a specific time each day to review these entries and practice thankfulness to Him from whom all blessings flow.

The practice of thankfulness is really the art of positive thinking. And positive thinking is the only creative approach to the everyday problems of living. Be thankful, be positive, be creative. And start today by being thankful.

GIRL KILLED IN FALL

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — A 3-year-old girl was killed and her mother injured when they fell from the cab of a moving truck here last night. Roxanne Dunne, 3, of Roseville, was crushed under the wheels. Mrs. Carroll Dunne escaped with minor injuries. Dunne was driving the truck when the door flew open.

Church News

and Melvin Williams, son of Rev. Williams, will play a trumpet solo.

Maranatha Bible

Seventh in a series of sermons on the book of Joshua will be given at morning worship service of the Maranatha Bible Church Sunday. At evening worship hour, music appropriate to Thanksgiving will be featured, with song service led by Fred Peters of Ashland, and a sermon by the pastor will be another in a series on miracles of the Bible. "Singspiration" and Bible quiz will be held at 9 p.m., followed by the Bible Fellowship radio broadcast at 10:15 over Station WMRN. The message will be on "The Stand of the Believer." For the morning Bible Fellowship program at 9:30 over Station WHKC, Columbus, the subject will be "When Christ Preached." Special music will be a part of both broadcasts.

Christian Science

"Soul and Body" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday. It will have for the Golden Text: "The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light" (Matthew 6:22).

"Thanksgiving" will be the subject for Thursday, Nov. 26. It will have for the Golden Text: "Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever" (Revelation 7:12).

First E and R

First Evangelical and Reformed Church will hold the annual Memorial Sunday service Sunday at morning worship hour in observance of the last Sunday of the church year. In the afternoon, both Senior and Junior Youth Fellowship groups will attend the fall rally of the Regional Youth Fellowship at Trinity Church in Upper Sandusky. Time of the rally will be 2 o'clock. Wednesday night, a social and business meeting of the Alpha Class will be held at the parsonage. The congregation will co-operate in union Thanksgiving services of the community.

Prospect Street

First of a series of Advent Season Sunday night services at Prospect Street Methodist Church will be held Sunday, beginning with vespers at 7:15. "As We Forgive," a film, will be shown at 7:30. It is the story of two boys caught in a church with a stolen trumpet, and deals with teaching of Christian forgiveness by a pastor and a police officer to the boys and adults involved in the situation. At morning worship service, the Senior Choir will sing, "Hallelujah, Amen," and the Youth Choir will be heard.

Youth program will start at 4:30 p.m. and include the young people's choir rehearsal followed by recreation at 5. Marilyn Mullen and Jane Willauer will be the leaders. Mr. and Mrs. William Hollaway and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rice will serve a "snack supper" at 6. Senior Fellowship at 6:30 will be led by Richard Bechtle on the topic "Developing a Christian Personality." Intermediate Fellowship topic will be "It's Crowded," led by Janice Young. Tuesday night, the M. O. H. Class will meet.

Church Briefs

"Why Pray?" will be the subject of the lecture at the meeting of the class in Christian fundamentals at Emanuel Lutheran Church on Monday at 7:30 p.m. The members of the Young People's Missionary Society will meet in the new educational building at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Thanksgiving service will be Wednesday night.

Reception of new members will be a part of the morning service Sunday at Emmanuel Baptist Church.

Ohio Bills 'Jack Slade,' 'Royal African Rifles'

A double feature, "Jack Slade," a western drama starring Mark Stevens with Dorothy Malone, and "The Royal African Rifles," a story of jungle terror, co-starring Louis Hayward and Veronica Hurst, currently is playing through double feature playing Thursday Monday at the Ohio Theater

"Jack Slade" is a drama based on the life of one of the West's most colorful lawmen Slade was an agent for the old Overland Stage Lines operating out of Julesburg, Colo., in the late 1850's, some years before the laying of the railroads. As a lawman, later a renegade, he took some 20 lives.

"The Royal African Rifles" is a story of stolen machine guns and an attempt to get them into the hands of forces opposed to colonial rule prior to the outbreak of World War I

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday is another double feature, "Key Largo" starring Humphrey Bogart, Edward G Robinson and Lauren Bacall, and "Treasure of Sierra Madre" starring Humphrey Bogart, both re-releases

Opening Thursday will be the technicolor film, "Calamity Jane," starring Doris Day and Howard Keel. Because of the Thanksgiving Day holiday, there will be a special matinee showing at 1 30 p.m.

In "Calamity Jane," story of one of the Wild West's most fabulous characters, Doris Day plays the title role of Martha Canary, who, as a beautiful lass in buckskins, was reputed to be a dead shot with six-gun As her leading man Howard Keel plays Wild Bill Hickok.

'Botany Bay' on Double Feature Bill at Palace

"Botany Bay," a technicolor adventure drama starring Alan Ladd and James Mason and co-starring Patricia Medina and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, and "Redheads from Seattle," will be the attractions Sunday through Wednesday at the Palace Theater.

Billed for Thursday and Friday is another double feature, "Half A Hero" starring Red Skelton with Jean Hagen and a guest appearance by Polly Bergen and "War Paint" starring Robert Stack and Joan Taylor

A comedy-drama "Half A Hero" is concerned with the problems of a struggling young married man to make ends meet in the face of an endearing but resolute wife determined to give their little son a proper start in life

Red Skelton plays Ben Dobson, re-write man on a big-circulation magazine, whose wife decides they must buy a house in the suburbs They get the home and with its bills, debts and mortages Desperate in his attempt to persuade his wife to return to the city and to a more economical way of living, Ben believes he has found a way out when his boss orders him to write an article describing such post-war suburban developments as their own community.

Filmed in color, "War Paint" tells of the plot of an Indian guide to destroy with the aid of thirst, heat and hunger, a detachment of United States cavalry.

Marion Schdules War Picture 'Glory at Sea'

"Glory at Sea" starring Trevor Howard, Sonny Tufts and Richard Attenborough and co-starring James Donald and Joan Rice, and "House of Wax", in regular film, starring Vincent Price, Frank Lovejoy and Phyllis Kirk, will be shown Sunday and Monday at the Marion Theater.

The former film is based on the exploits of a former U. S. destroyer and her role as the spearhead of a raid similar to that on the port of St. Nazaire.

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday are two mystery dramas, "Isle of the Dead" starring Boris Karloff with Ellen Drew and Marc Cramer and "The Blue Gardenia" with Richard Conte, Anne Baxter and Ann Sothern

In the former, Boris Karloff is seen as a man driven to insanity by plague who ultimately believes rumors circulated by a witch that a vampire is causing the disease and deaths In "The Blue Gardenia," a too-attentive artist and a girl on the rebound are the elements which lead to a brutal murder Richard Conte is seen as a popular newspaperman who, in an effort to help solve the puzzling Blue Gardenia murder, uses his column to plead with the killer to surrender.

The attractions Thursday through Saturday are 'Fort O'Sage' starring Rod Cameron, and "Angel's Alley" with the Bowery Boys.

MARK STEVENS, in the title role, and Barton MacLane as his bitter enemy duel to the death in the dramatic film, "Jack Slade," one attraction of a double feature now playing through Monday at the Ohio Theater

Crosby, Hope, Lamour In 'Road' Film at State

"Road to Bali" a technicolor comedy starring Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour and Overland Stage Raiders" with John Wayne, will be shown Sunday and Monday at the State Theater

Billed for Tuesday and Wednesday are "Narrow Margin" and "Roll, Thunder Roll" The former stars Charles McGraw and Marie Windsor and heading the cast in the latter is "Wild" Bill Elliott Jane Wyman and Ray Milland

F. M. Barnhill Named Head of Local Factory

Appointment of Frank M Barnhill of 529 King Ave as general manager of the Transmission Specialties Co plant in Marion was announced today by Chris Gerst, company president at Detroit

Marion's newest industry, Transmission Specialties will be located in the old Marion Rapid Transit Co building at W Center St. just west of the New York Central railroad tracks.

Installation of machinery and extensive remodeling of the former bus company building is under way and will be completed in the next two or three weeks Included in the remodeling is the complete rewiring of the building, installation of new offices, and redecorating of both the inside and outside of the plant. Landscaping of plant property has also been completed Actual production is expected to start early in December

The plant will manufacture transmissions and gears for LeRoi truck mixers

Formerly employed at the General Excavator Co as director of purchasing and production manager for several years Barnhill is a native of Marion. He is married and lives with his wife, the former Clara Louise Riedenbaugh, also a Marion native, at the King Ave address They are the parents of two children, a son, John, who is a student of Harding High School and a daughter, Jeri, a Harding graduate now attending Miami University at Oxford.

Barnhill, was first employed at the old Power Manufacturing Co. which was located in the building presently occupied by the Marion Metal Products Co He later became associated with General Excavator Co.

America's Deadly Peril

When everything has been said and done, the one thing Americans will never be able to swallow in the spy-ring setup is this.

That people who held elective office chummed up with people whose acts subsequently were revealed to be disloyal to the United States.

The explanation is not pleasant.

There was a deadly parallel in the purposes of the people who held office and the purposes of the conspirators who wormed their way into power as their companions and advisers.

Both were interested in setting up authoritarian government which would substitute central planning for popular sovereignty.

Both wanted to hamstring private enterprise and private ownership.

Both were addicted to the un-American practice of stirring up class hatred as a prelude to getting rid of minorities they didn't like.

Both were working hand in glove with union bosses aspiring to hold the power which would be theirs in an American version of proletarian dictatorship.

The whole thing is as easy to understand by hindsight as the arrangement whereby John L. Lewis called in the professional Communists to help organize the CIO.

Once inside, the Communists knew how to entrench themselves and get what they wanted They did entrench themselves so firmly they could be routed out only at the expense of tearing apart the organization.

It took a long time to make the fateful decision to do that.

The CIO is still wrestling with that problem. So is the government of the United States.

So is the government of Britain, where the deadly parallel between creeping socialism (Fabianism) and outright Marxism was not detected until the creepers had seized private property.

France, Italy and Germany, too, have been victims of the scheme whereby Marxists walked hand in hand with fellow travelers and power-grabbers willing to scuttle freedom for the privilege of giving orders to the dumb, faceless, nameless masses who were put on earth—according to authoritarians—to carry out their arrogant commands

The people who really betrayed America were not the Communists They were the homegrown authoritarians traveling in the same direction.

Pneumonia Weather

The Ancient Mariner's "cloudless sky" would have been a blessing for modern ships that move without sails

But in the time of sailing ships, weather was no good without enough breeze to fill the canvas "A painted ship upon a painted ocean" was the ultimate in nautical helplessness.

More thought has been given to the imperfection of perfect weather in this part of the country since last July than at any time in the memory of living men. Opinions are being revised.

The only perfection which could be bestowed on this area would be an interval of the kind of weather which in ordinary years is cursed and reviled for its imperfections.

There should be days on end of dripping, drizzling, bone-chilling autumn rain. This should be followed by days of snowdrifts turning into windrows of slush, oozing into shoetops by day and stiffening by night

Skies should be overcast. The sun should stay concealed for days at a time. The ground should turn to mush The air should be humid and dank. Old-timers should announce through chattering teeth that "This is old-fashioned pneumonia weather."

Anyone thoughtless enough to say it's a bad day when something finally is done about the moisture deficit which already is a minor catastrophe and may turn into a major one should be made to go without a drink of water for many days as there have been months without thirst-quenching rain — now approaching five.

Juvenile Normalcy

While the Senate hearing on juvenile delinquency is gaining momentum, a popular notion about juvenile delinquency is gaining momentum too.

Nothing that happens over and over again can properly be called an emergency. No behavior pattern which is common among juveniles can be called abnormal

Delinquency among juveniles, in other words, may be only a reflection of something that has gone wrong with the ability of adults to handle certain behavior problems among juveniles.

In most instances when the problems are handled correctly, solutions are forthcoming. Young people who had been classed as delinquent become normal, with rare exceptions.

The exceptions are the only real delinquents. All others are imitations. Most of the imitations eventually come to their senses and put their interval of delinquency behind them.

They eventually are able to say what many a former delinquent has earned the right to say, with perhaps a grimace of remorse.

"I was the kind of a kid my mother wouldn't let me play with."

Campaign Issue

By David Lawrence

Truman Makes Communism 1954 Political Must

Certainly the Communist infiltration in the government during the Truman administration will be an issue in the 1954 congressional elections — for the simple reason that the Democrats involuntarily are making it an issue.

The Democrats under the Truman-Stevenson leadership are still taking the side of the argument that the Communist infiltration was exaggerated and that it was always just a political "red herring."

Likewise, these same Democrats evidently believe that "anti-McCarthyism" — which they have been expounding for some months now—is good as a political issue.

THIS MEANS that the Republicans naturally will counter with charges of lack of vigor by the Democratic administrations in ferreting out Communists.

If President Eisenhower is naive enough to believe that the Democrats will keep quiet about the "anti-McCarthyism" issue in 1954, he is very much mistaken

Likewise, the Republicans, of course, wherever there's a doubt will ask every candidate for Congress to stand up and be counted on whether he stands with Truman on the Harry Dexter White issue or against him.

As for Mr Truman, he made sure that Communism in government would be an issue in the coming campaign by charging in his nation-wide broadcast last Monday night that the Eisenhower administration had "embraced McCarthyism."

THIS GIVES the Republicans the best opening they had in months because, if "McCarthyism" can be defined as demagoguery, then "Trumanism" is much worse because it includes not only demagoguery but a soft attitude toward Communist infiltration in government as evidenced by the revelations in the Harry Dexter White case. Nobody can accuse McCarthy of softness toward Communists in government.

Mr. Truman's record of "politeness" or "courtesy" not only wasn't manifested in his broadcast when he said the attorney general "lied," but his speeches before have been filled with similar epithets about his opponents.

Back in the 1948 campaign, he cast some doubts on the loyalty of Governor Dewey and in the 1952 campaign he issued a statement referring to General Eisenhower's utterances in one instance as "thoroughly dishonest."

WITH ALL the talk about the dignity of former presidents who don't want to respond to congressional subpenas where they can be examined under oath, it doesn't become Mr. Truman to say the attorney general "lied" when he denied any intention to impugn Mr. Truman's loyalty.

Mr. Brownell didn't hit back by refusing to accept as true Mr. Truman's belated denial that he fired White when he found him disloyal. Mr. Truman described that comment as an "error," and Mr. Brownell ignored it.

One of the tragic aspects of the whole controversy is the way partisans have immediately jumped to the defense of Mr. Truman without waiting to hear all the facts.

The press abroad, with some exceptions, did this. Dispatches as usual came from Britain, France and Germany saying American "prestige" had been damaged by the attorney general's speech.

Every time something happens in America by way of an attack on the Truman administration, the European press — which remembers gratefully the billions spent abroad by that administration — promptly jumps on the Republicans and says American prestige has been injured.

AS ONE FORMER American diplomat said the other day: "Never has so much prestige been lost so often."

What Europeans think of Americans is colored by the "left wingers" abroad plus a number of disgruntled Americans who have been fired from their posts in an attempt to reduce the waste of American taxpayers' money.

Fortunately, Lord Beaverbrook and other publishers abroad are beginning to see the anti-Communist fight inside America as something more than "hysteria," fomented allegedly by those who want to deprive innocent persons of their liberties.

Fortunately also, the knowledge that Klaus Fuchs, a British citizen, was cleared by the British government to work in an American atomic energy project and then transmitted the secret of the atom bomb to Soviet Russia is beginning to take a rightful place in the controvery over whether enough vigilance has been exercised by the press in some of the countries where criticism of America is so often voiced.

THE WHOLE controversy over Communists inside the American, British and Canadian governments is a tragic one, and it is evident that Attorney General Brownell's speech was timely. For there are too many on the Democratic party and so-cllled "liberal" side who still pooh-pooh the whole thing as a "red herring" for political purposes.

That's why, if only to arouse America to the peril — which still exists — it will be an issue in the next campaign unless a new and awakened leadership in the Democratic party gets the upper hand over the "left wing" groups led by Messrs. Truman and Stevenson.

White Case Not All Sound and Fury

By Raymond Moley

Those who can keep their passions under control in such a controversy as that which is associated with the name of the late Harry Dexter White can learn a great deal about the principles of politics.

One of the primary rules of politics is to accuse your adversary of playing politics. That is as elementary as the custom in the manly art of base-running of "inadvertantly" knocking the ball out of the fielder's hand.

And so Democratic Chairman Mitchell brings grave charges of politics in answer to the Republican attack on Mr. Truman.

THERE IS a bit of subtle humor in this, because after what we have seen of the political acumen of some members of the administration, it passes comprehension that they know enough about politics to practice it at all.

We are witnessing a game of politics played by both parties. It is in the public interest that this matter be made a political issue. For only by the political process, which is free government at work, can the public ever get the truth and thus have the means of making a clear judgment.

This is the only realistic and healthful point of view with which a citizen can approach this matter. And delusion that the quality of government can be ascertained in any other way is merely to blink at the facts of human nature and at the Anglo-Saxon tradition of jurisprudence.

THAT TRADITION is to have two prejudiced, partial, interested advocates argue the case before a jury of so-called peers. They are peers in the nobility of ignorance.

Politics in a free nation applies the same principle on a larger scale and with more confusion, and with no baliff to keep order.

In the first place, the Republicans in office have learned, just as they learned in the middle of the campaign in 1952, that millions of people in this country are interested in two matters of great importance—communism and corruption.

Somehow, the lessons of the 1952 campaign seemed to be lost for some months on the President and his cabinet and his palace guard They dawdled along, enjoying their shiny new offices, their perquisites, and their vacations.

Suddenly, and this preceded the recent elections by several weeks, really practical politicians like Chairman Hall, who knew the grass roots, got over to the attorney-general and others that the new administration was slipping in popularity.

RUDE JOKES were current, like the crack attributed to a Presidential subordinate: "Why should they be mad at us? We haven't done anything."

They were further reminded by the wise, battle-bitten veterans that their goddess, Economy — Oeconomy it used to be spelled—is a pale virgin but sharp-eyed. She sees too well in all directions—those who get the jobs as well as those who get fired. She is not endeared to those who lurk about the clubhouses.

But Justice is a lusty Amazon She sees not at all She is blindfolded. But she swings a massive sword.

And so the minister of justice, Brownell, made the first of what will be many thrusts at the party out of power.

Of course, there have been mistakes on both sides Brownell was not altogether precise in his language. Velde was clearly off side, not so much in summoning august personages but because he was running in opposition to the Jenner Committee.

THE SEASONED political opinion among Republicans is that Jenner is smarter and more effective.

But a series of political exchanges has been set off which will, in the long run, be very valuable to every right-thinking American citizen

He must be reminded from time to time that enemies of his republic can get into subordinate jobs and that careless work at the top permits them to stay and to accomplish their malignant purposes.

And he must be reminded that the two-party system is the best means he can have of fighting such evils unless he wants to adopt some other form of government.

There will be great noise, but there will be some light. And for that he can be thankful.

Dear Nephew: Everything is quiet here and I hope you are the same. A lot of tumult and shouting quieted down after Rev. Barnaby's sermon last Sunday.

It was a nice day, the circumstances were in his favor and a lot of people turned out for the service. There must have been 125 present. But what Barnaby said was heard by at least that many more.

He preached on the text: Judge not, lest ye be judged.

He recounted some of the more familiar examples of recent times of harsh judgments which had brought down harder judgments.

He pointed out the difference between a judgment against a murderer and a judgment against a halfback who fumbles a football after a bad pass from center.

He went back into recent history to recall some of the cracks which men had made in public at the expense of other men

I never knew the old boy followed sports closely enough to understand what happens when a baseball manager casts reflections on the skill of a rival club or some individual — how the slurred club or individual thereafter dedicates every ounce of skill and energy to the cause of revenge.

But he mentioned that too

He talked about the relationship in a republic between forbearance and freedom. He does not think it is possible to save freedom unless free men guard their tongues on occasions when they are judging their fellowmen out of court.

He said everything in Christianity upholds the importance of this and that it is one reason why the dictators of Russia, who despise Christianity, are able to infuriate us with judgments so harsh and unfair they could not be made by anyone with a decent respect for the dignity of men

Then, to keep the sermon from sounding like a comment on national affairs, he narrowed it down to local affairs. He began to tell his story in parables, making up situations and names which could be understood by all of us.

Even the dullest listener could get the drift. We should be slow to judge in all things lest we be judged in haste ourselves, without a decent regard for the facts.

Rev. Barnaby brought the sermon to a climax by showing how our community could be torn asunder if all of us were to believe the worst about everybody else.

For a preacher who sometimes gives me the impression he used up all his material the first time around the circuit when he was an apprentice, it was one of the most powerful sermons about every-day Christianity I've ever heard. I sent him a bushel of our best apples to show special appreciation.

And as I said, things quieted down afterward. Rufus Mueller, who has been accused of trying to earn the reputation of the hardest-nosed man in the township, even withdrew his lawsuit against the trustees for claimed invasion of his riparian rights.

I quit accusing your aunt of trying to poison me with a new kind of biscuits she buys already mixed and ready to pop into the oven. She quit telling people I am turning into a garrulous old gossip. The lamb and the lion are getting along fine together this week.

Are We All Copy Cats?

By MARK DANA

Reports from Washington indicate that golf is booming as recreation and as a business since President Eisenhower manifested keen interest in the sport.

Playing on public and private links, also tournaments, golf lunches and of course the patronizing of golf teachers and sporting goods stores, have gained, and devotees of the ancient game give credit to the President.

This is no more than natural, and involves no great significance. Any clergyman would be ready to voice a wish that people would fill the churches for a similar reason —the fact that President and Mrs. Eisenhower attend church. Maybe that splendid example, however, lacks some of the stimulation of the object lesson of a President engaged in what the irreverent dub cow-pasture shinny.

One may muse about this quite human idiosyncrasy of copying persons higher on the ladder without either praise or censure. It is commonly known that the Queens of England have needed only to show a momentary preference for some clothes fabric, gee-gaw, color or cut to have all the English shopgirls doing likewise

Queen Victoria, by her own restrained dressing, kept garments of English women long subdued. Queen Mother Mary does not like decolletage, so in recent years her women subjects tended to keep throats well covered. As Prince of Wales and later King Edward VIII, her son made or killed off men's styles by a casual gesture

We tend to do the same over here. Hollywood sets many of our clothing and (regrettably) conduct patterns, and when Mrs. Grace Coolidge indicated fondness for a particular shade of blue, that shade blossomed out over our land. Is there anything wrong in this general idea? Surely not

Imitation, says an old proverb, is the sincerest form of flattery. It also gives the imitator a sense of sharing the status of the copied person The chief danger is when impressionable children and young persons emulate the wrong "heroes"

Daily Bible Thought

"God be merciful to me a sinner." — Luke 18:13. There never was but one perfect man and they crucified him. We all do need God's mercy. We failed and fell short. We are told to be perfect as the Father in Heaven is perfect. We have by no means measured up to that command.

Dr. George Tryon Harding, father of President Harding, a native of Morrow County, could trace his paternal geneology for 1,300 years. The original name was Hardene. His maternal grandfather was a first cousin to the mother of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederacy, and his maternal grandmother was a cousin to Honorable Alexander Stephens, long a leading statesman of the southern cause. Dr Harding bore the name of his great-great-grandfather, Governor Tryon Dr. Harding fought with the Union Army and was a member of Cooper Post, No. 17, Grand Army of the Republic.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Oh To Be in England!

Britain will at last allow commercials on TV. The government-controlled BBC announces that advertisers will be permitted to buy time but not have control of the programs. (This could be merely an unfavorable reaction abroad to the "Dragnet" theme music.)

The BBC will require scripts in advance and judge them at a preview before giving the green light. And the commercials must never be delivered during the entertainment.

The British have a feeling that there is something cheap about an actor or actress stepping out of a role to go into a Kickapoo Indian medicine-man routine.

They shudder at the thought of a member of the Northwest Mounties halting his pursuit of the outlaws in order to explain how he shaves.

Britannia may not rule the waves, but it seems determined to rule the airwaves BBC is dull Americans would find it stuffy and hard to take But few people will deny that the commercials that dot American radio and TV programs are maddening

On an American program it would surprise nobody if Romeo followed the line, "Oh, that I were a glove upon that hand and that I might touch that cheek'" with a broad smile and, "Yes, and when you touch a cheek be sure that it is a cheek that has been freshened by a wonderful beauty soap"

Or if Juliet spoke the impassioned lines, "This bud of love by summer's ripening breath may prove a beauteous flower, etc.," and then leap off the balcony to chirp. "Are you troubled with a ripening breath? Then make sure it proves a beauteous flower before your friends begin to whisper r-r-r—."

Things are getting so commercialized on American TV and radio that we expect any evening to hear Hamlet thus

To be, or not to be that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The slings and arrows of outrageous fortune
Or to take arms against a sea of troubles,
And, by the right soap powder, end them.
To sleep perchance to dream, ay, there's the rub—

Bennett Cerf says he will refund every dollar paid for copies of Dupre's "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk," but we don't see why The yarn was exciting, true or false. Just give us half our money back or a recording of "The Old Hoaxem Bucket"

Cerf says the book should have been called "THE Man Who Talked TOO Much." . . . Why not "Untruth And Consequences"?

Larry Reno, a Yale youth who hadn't played football before and volunteered to help out as a sprinter, set up the play for the winning touchdown at Princeton. Would you say Eli Yale got a divorce from Mrs. Losing Streak by going to Reno?

There are fewer funnier scenes on Broadway than the one in "Sabrina Fair" in which the chauffeur turns out to have more money than his Wall Street boss and explains how he sold at the right time and bought back at low levels in the very years his boss was doing it the wrong way. Man, 33, Killed In Auto Crash Near Delaware

Walter T. Isaly, 33, of Upper Arlington was killed Friday night when his car plunged down a steep embankment near the Olentangy River in Delaware County. He was the second cousin of David Isaly of 708 Uhler Ave. and Richard C. Isaly of Chelsea Rd. in Marion.

State patrolmen in Delaware reported this morning the car came down a steep hill on Powell Rd., crossed the intersection of state route 315, went across a bridge at the intersection and crashed into a light pole at the eat end of the bridge.

A passenger in the vehicle, William Lintner, 31, of Columbus was taken to the Jane Case Hospital in Delaware with a slight concussion and bruised left hip.

Delaware County coronor, Dr. Dennison Williams said today Isaly's death was caused by a broken neck and internal injuries.

The body was taken to the Doty Funeral Home in Delaware, then sent to the Schoedinger Funeral Chapel in Columbus.

Isaly was born Nov 10 1920 to Mr. and Mrs. Walter E. Isaly. He is survived by a daughter, Ellen E. of Columbus, a brother, Earl Isaly of Houston, Tex., and a sister, Mrs. Betty Latham of Columbus

Funeral services will be at the E State St. chapel of the Schoedinger Funeral Home Monday at 2 p.m. Burial will be in Green Lawn Cemetery.

1,335 Sheep Sold At Marion Auction

At the weekly sheep and lamb sale held Friday by the Producers Livestock Cooperative Association at its Marin yards, a total of 1,335 animals were sold by 75 consignors. The market price averaged 50 cents higher than last week. A summary of the sale follows:

Sheep and Lambs: Total No. 1,335; Market 50 cents higher than last Friday; Prime lambs 20.30; Choice 19.50 to 20 30; Good 18.00 to 19.50, Utility 15.00 to 18.00; Cull 15.00 down; Feeder lambs 15.00 to 17.60) Aged Sheep for slaughter 2.50 to 5.50.

It's A Matter Of Opinion

Some folks go for be-bop, others prefer the classics — some love Yogurt, while their friends may detest it. There are those who dream of life on a desert isle, and their opposites who adore the city's noise.

It might seem such different personalities could never agree on anything—but this is not true! Introverts and extroverts . . . opponents and exponents . . . exhibitionist and inhibited—all are agreed —to buy, sell, hire, etc. . . . there is nothing to equal the efficiency of Marion Star Want Ads.

DELAWARE WOMAN DIES

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Injuries received in an automobile accident Oct. 25 proved fatal yesterday to Betsy R. Chapman, 29, of Delaware.

REV. A. E. CLARK

Rev. Clark To Aid In Special Meetings At Marion Church

Rev. A. E. (Gene) Clark of near Marion will be the guest minister assisting with special meetings in Marion at Greenwood EUB Church next week, beginning Sunday. He and Mrs. Clark will be in charge of music and children's meetings. The Clarks are from the rural Salem EUB Church where Rev. Clark is pastor.

The Greenwood Church pastor, Rev. Lynn H. Harris, will preach each night through Dec. 6, giving a series of messages on "The Panorama of the Ages." This will be based on the book of Revelation and two dispensational charts will be used for illustration.

Children's meetings will be each night at 7, followed by the public preaching service at 7 30.

On Saturday next week at 6 30 p.m., the Golden Rule Class of the church will hold a supper at the Parish House A special program has been planned.

Happy are the families where the government of parents is the reign of affection, and obedience of the children th submission of love.—Bacon

Crusade for Christ Meetings Arranged

Special features in the Crusade for Christ meetings sponsored by two Baptist congregations here next week have been arranged for several nights when Rev. Mel Martin of Cincinnati will be heard at Trinity Church here. Joining with the host church for the series is Fite Memorial Church.

At Trinity Church Sunday morning, the Church School will have a general assembly at 10:15 following class period for an introductory session with the evangelist preceding morning worship hour.

Monday night will be Youth Night, then Wednesday, "Men's Night," Thursday, "Family Night," and Saturday, "Music Night." Rev. Martin will conduct morning devotions at 8:15 each day on the radio over Station WMR and will be heard at meeting of the Lions Club, at Harding High School assembly, at Kiwanis Club meeting, and at the union Thanksgiving service Thursday morning at Wesley Methodist Church. A former television personality, Rev. Martin, whose real name is Mel Dibble, was master of ceremonies for the Breakfast Party telecast in Cincinnati before he resigned to enter the evanglistic field.

Evening service of Fite Memorial Church Sunday will be dismissed to permit members to attend the service at Trinity Church.

Bowl Bids at Stake in Gridiron Finales

Win by Illini Would Set Vote on Big Ten's Choice

BY ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—This is getaway day for most of the country's major college football teams. It also could be bowl-clinching day for three of them and relief day for the members of two conferences who conceivably might be forced to vote a team into the bowls.

Maryland, one of the nation's two major undefeated, untied outfits, could get the Orange Bowl spot against Oklahoma by defeating Alabama. That's fairly simple, but the Big Ten and Pacific Coast conferences are more complicated.

In the Big Ten, Michigan State, Illinois and Wisconsin could wind up in a three-way tie for the championship. This is contingent on Illinois turning back Northwestern and Wisconsin beating Minnesota. That would give all three 5-1 records since Michigan State's season is over.

A vote would be called to decide whether Illinois or State would make the New Year's Day trip to Pasadena. Wisconsin is out [illegible] of it by virtue of having played in the game last year.

Then the other conference bigwigs could start reaching for the headache powders, Whichever they voted in probably would touch off criticism. For a time, it was thought that since Michigan State was on probation, the Illini would get it in the event of a tie.

But earlier in the week, most of the other schools' spokesmen disclaimed any intention of being influenced by the Spartans' probation. They'd make their choice strictly on football, they said

Of course, if Northwestern upsets the Illini, the problem would vanish. Michigan State would go on its 5-1 record.

In the Pacific Coast Conference, both UCLA and Stanford have aspirations for the championship and they could wind up in a deadlock provided they defeat, respectively, Southern California and California. Both are favored.

Here, again, a vote would be required if both UCLA and Stanford win. In that case, the Indians would have definite advantage in view of the fact that they edged the Bruins, 21-20 earlier in the season.

The UCLA-Southern Cal contest, incidentally, will be the NCAA's television game of the week.

Meanwhile, Notre Dame, the No. 1 team in the Associated Press weekly poll, takes on Iowa, and for some unfathomable reason, many experts seem to think the Hawkeyes will make things tough for Frank Leahy's team. Not that Forest Evashevski's lads are not fine young men, but there is no reason to believe that they'll do any better against Notre Dame than the Irish's other victims.

Notre Dame has been installed a 13-point favorite.

The Ivy League has its big game of the year —Harvard vs Yale. This is the ONLY game of the season to the old grads of these venerable institutions and although no national titles will hinge on the outcome of the 70th meeting, it will attract a crowd of about 60,000 in the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Conn. The Elis are favored by one touchdown.

Other major games include:

East — Rutgers at Columbia, Fordham at Holy Cross, Penn State at Pitt, Dartmouth at Princeton, Boston University at Temple, Lafayette at Lehigh.

South—Auburn at Clemson, Duke at Georgia Tech, Tennessee at Kentucky, West Virginia at North Carolina State, North Carolina at Virginia, Furman at Wake Forest, Washington and Lee at William and Mary.

Midwest — Purdue at Indiana, Missouri at Kansas, Marquette at Michigan State, Ohio State at Michigan, Oklahoma at Nebraska.

Southwest — Southern Methodist at Baylor, North Texas State at Hardin-Simmons, Texas Tech at Houston, Rice at Texas Christain, Detroit at Tulsa.

Far West—New Mexico at Colorado A&M, Utah State at Idaho, Oregon State at Oregon, Washington State at Washington.

Mexican Race Field Reduced To 95 Drivers

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Tens of thousands of racing fans, many in colorful sarapes and sombreros, lined the highway leading to Leon today as a sharply whittled field of about 95 drivers headed north on the third lap of the five-day Pan American Road Race.

Accidents, disqualifications, slow time and other reasons have cut down the original 177 who started the $100,000 classic on the Guatemalan border Thursday.

Italian Lancias and American Lincolns had a firm grip on top honors in their divisions, and these were the first to head for Leon 420 kilometers (261 miles) away at dawn.

Two legs will be run today, marking the longest of the entire five-day dash. From Leon the cars will then go to Durango for the night. Durango is 950 kilometers (590 miles) from Mexico City

Morral Quintet Seeks Games at Home, on Road

The Morral Brick & Tile Co. basketball team, with three straight wins under its belt in its first year of competition, seeks to remain undefeated Saturday when the Kenton Drugs team comes to the Morral High School gymnasium.

W. K. Zinszer, general superintendent of the Morral plant and manager of the team, says the squad has 20 games lined up and is still seeking a few more. He said the Morral five wants either home or away games and says teams wishing games with the quintet can contact him at the plant.

Although the team is being sponsored for the first time by the Morral plant, most of the members of the team have played together before at Morral High School.

Leading the team to its three wins so far have been Ron Craycraft and Huston Ackley. Gene Craycraft is another high scorer for the club.

Other members of the team are Dick Granlee, Don Johnson, Fred McCumber, Roy Loudenslager, Dale Whitman, Eddie Faurot, Bob Buckley, Bernard Martin, Bill Merrow, Joe Murphy and Dick Saxton.

The Morral team has defeated the Waldo Merchants 62-44, Marion Power Shovel 46-36, and Marion Industries 58-40.

Wet Gridiron May Slow Up Bucks, Wolves

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Ohio State and Michigan closed out mutually disappointing seasons here today in a Big Ten football game expected to attract 90,000. A sloppy field is expected.

For the first time in several years nothing will be at stake except victory in the clash of the arch Midwest rivals.

Michigan, off to five victories in its first five games, now faces its worst Big Ten record since 1936. A triumph would give the Wolverines a 3-3 conference record.

Ohio State seeks its fifth conference win against two defeats. The Buckeyes have an overall 6-2 record.

Michigan holds a wide edge in the 49 previous meetings of the two schools. The Wolverines have won 32 games, lost 13 and tied 4.

Injuries Riddle Message Line Used by Brown

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Coach Paul Brown, who calls most of the plays himself, may need a new set of messengers tomorrow when his Cleveland Browns play a return game against the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Brown usually alternates two men at an offensive guard post to take in signals—but this time two of his five guards probably will be on the bench with injuries.

Hurt and almost sure not to play in the National Football League contest are Gene Donaldson and big Bill Willis. Hurt, but possibly able to play at least part of the game, is Lin Houston. Unhurt and ready are Abe Gibron and Chuck Noll.

Gibron may have to play both on offense and defense unless Brown has converted some spare tackles to fill the guard slots

In the past, the Cleveland coach occasionally has sent his messages in by alternating halfbacks and he could do that again against the Steelers. Among the offensive halfs ready to go are such speedsters as Ray Renfro, Ken Carpenter, Billy Reynolds and Dub Jones.

Pittsburgh has won only four of its eight games, while the Browns have gone undefeated and apparently are headed for their greatest year.

Although the Cleveland team is favored by 10 points, Brown is still cautious.

Langlois, Jesse Turner Matched in TV Battle

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Pierre Langlois of France, ninth-ranked among the middleweights, takes on hard-punching Jesse Turner of St. Louis in a scheduled 10-round boxing bout at Kiel Auditorium tonight.

The fight will be televised nationally at 9 p. m. EST by ABC.

Meet Steelers

Browns 10-Point Favorites To Extend Winning Streak

NEW YORK (AP)—The Cleveland Browns, striving to become pro football's first undefeated team since the Chicago Bears won 11 conference games in 1942, put their eight-game victory streak on the line against the Pittsburgh Steelers Sunday in one of the top weekend attractions in the National Football League.

The Chicago Cardinals visit Philadelphia tonight while Sunday's action includes Detroit at the Chicago Bears, Los Angeles at Baltimore, San Francisco vs Green Bay at Milwaukee and Washington at New York

Otto Graham and company seem to be getting better as the season progresses and they're rated a 10-point favorite to lick the Steelers for the second time. In their previous meeting Cleveland won 34-16

Detroit, which took over the Western Conference lead last week and is a half-game ahead of Los Angeles, rules a 7½-point choice to turn back the improving Bears The defending champion Lions have a 6-2 record while Chicago has won two, lost five and tied one.

The Rams, who tied the Cardinals a week ago, hope to get back on the victory trail at the expense of Baltimore. Los Angeles (5-2-1), runnerup to Detroit, is favored by 14 points over the Colts (3-5-0).

San Francisco, after bowing to Cleveland last week to drop out of a first place tie in the Western division, should find the going a lot easier against Green Bay.

The high-scoring Philadelphia Eagles still have a mathematical chance to overhaul the Browns and they're favored by 14 points to overpower the winless Cardinals and keep their faint hopes alive. Philadelphia has won five straight and its overall record is 5-2-1.

In the only game which has no bearing on either league race, the New York Giants are a slight choice to shade the Washington Redskins.

Vince Martinez Blasts Vejar, Moves Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—Vince Martinez moves on to a January date with Carmen Basilio or Rocky Casillo and soldier Chico Vejar goes back to Ft. Benning Monday morning.

That is the net result of last night's lively 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden in which Martinez won a unanimous decision with his quick hands and stabbing jab.

Vejar was down for an automatic eight-count from a right to the jaw in the second round of the bout witnessed by 7,319 fans who paid $27,267.

After the knockdown, Chico rallied strongly with a swarming body attack that should have pleased the TV viewers back at camp.

Martinez and his manager Bill Daly were pleased with the Paterson, N. J., welter's new-found ability to time himself.

Too often in the past, Martinez has bounced away to a fast start and then slowed to a walk in the stretch. He did that last March 13 when Vejar upset him in the Garden.

Vejar puzzled the customers by switching to left handed style in the sixth. Instead of confusing Martinez, it set him up for some solid right hand punches.

There was a strong home town following from Stamford, Conn., for Vejar who weighed 150½ to 149½ for Martinez.

Referee Petey Scalzo and Judge Frank Forbes scored it 6-4 and Judge Art Aidala 6-3-1, all for Martinez. The AP card had it 6-2-2 in favor of Martinez.

Baseball Returned In Upper Sandusky

UPPER SANDUSKY — Upper Sandusky High School will have two spring sports this year, reorganizing a baseball team after a five-year lapse, along with the its schedule of track and field meets.

Lagging interest on the part of the student body and a too-small squad of candidates were the main reasons the diamond squad was discontinued in 1948.

Renewed interest this year brought the approval of school authorities when Donald T. Olin, high school dramatics and speech teacher, consented to accept the extra job as coach.

schedule of six Northern Ohio League games will be played and the Rams will also play in the league tourney following the regular season. With the return of the Rams all the NOL teams are in the league baseball schedule except Norwalk.

Why bidding at a sale gets down to just two bidders

Lew Wickersham

At any auction the bidding is usually fast and furious when an item is first offered. Then the bargain-hunters start dropping out, until finally you have just two people bidding one against the other. Both want the item, so it's up to you to decide when the top price has been bid. It's the last few seconds that often mean a much higher dollar total for you. Write, phone or call if you need a top auctioneer

UCLA, Southern Cal Clash In TV Tilt for Coast Title

LOS ANGELES (AP)—This was showdown day for the Bruins of UCLA and their Rose Bowl aspirations. They engaged the University of Southern California Trojans and victory, or at best a tie, was mandatory.

It was the game of the year for UCLA, and the game of the week for the nation's television fans.

Upward of 90,000 fans were expected to witness the game in Memorial Coliseum, and millions more awaited the kickoff before the National Broadcasting Company television cameras.

Game time: 1:30 p.m. (4:30 p.m EST)

UCLA headed into the contest, last of the Pacific Coast Conference schedule, tied with Stanford University in the Rose Bowl race.

Each had a record of five conference victories and one defeat—UCLA to Stanford, Stanford to bowl-ineligible Southern California.

Naturally, progress of affairs at Palo Alto, between Stanford and California, was of intense interest here. If both Stanford and UCLA win, or both lose, or both tie, the bowl issue will be decided over the weekend by conference vote. The outcome will be announced Monday.

UCLA, unbeaten out of the conference and winner over such foes as Wisconsin, was favored by about six points, purely off its record against mutual opponents with USC. It was the No. 5 team in the Associated Press national rankings, USC No. 9.

44 Cagers Report For Galion Squad

GALION — A squad of 44 Galion cagers, headed by three returning lettermen, began basketball practice this week in preparation for the 1953-54 opener with Marion here Dec. 1.

Coach Jack Shuck has divided the group into two shifts. Varsity players report at 4 p.m. for practice and the remainer of the candidates come at 6 p.m. Coach Dick Kerin, head football coach, will handle the junior varsity team.

Nucleus of this year's Tiger edition will be Tom Quay, veteran junior player; Don Hathaway, senior forward; and Stan Lorens, senior guard. Chuck Adams and Glenn Scherer, seniors, and Dick Ekin, a junior, all of whom saw varsity action last year, are also counted on.

A total of 30 candidates responded to the first basketball call issued by Coach Shuck Saturday, when most of the time was spent in passing out uniforms and also included some ball-handling and warmup routines. The number increased to the present 44 by Monday.

Galion will play seven Northern Ohio League opponents, opening with Norwalk Jan. 15 Nine of Galion's 19-games are on the Galion court.

Mohawks Here Sunday

Additional Help Received By Marion Hockey Squad

Strengthened by the addition of two new men, the Marion Barons will have their strongest team of the season on the ice tomorrow afternoon, General Manager Tony Hemmerling reported today.

The locals will need the strength for they entertain the league-leading Cincinnati Mohawks who have won seven and tied one in their last eight outings.

The two new players, Phil Vitale and Dutch Delmonte, added to the Baron roster this week bring the club up to its 15-man limit.

Local fans shouldn't have too much trouble spotting the new men. Vitale, a 6-3, 200-pound defenseman, is the biggest man in the league. Delmonte, a right winger, is prematurely bald at the age of 26.

Vitale, aged 33, has seen pro hockey action with San Francisco, Quebec and Charlottestown. He started this season with North Bay in the Northern Ontario circuit. Signed by the Barons this morning, Vitale will be making his first appearance with the club.

Delmonte, who joined the Barons in Johnstown Thursday night, has been in pro hockey since 1945, playing with the Boston Bruins, the St. Paul Saints, Kansas City, the Tacoma Rockets and the Cleveland Barons. He is subject to immediate recall to Cleveland.

The Barons will be fresh from a successful week when they take to the ice. During the week they climbed out of the cellar into a tie for seventh place by winning three of four games. They racked up a pair of victories over second-place Johnstown 4-3 and 5-2 and downed Milwaukee 6-3. The locals only loss of the week came Wednesday night at the hands of Louisville 4-3.

Camp Lejeune Squad Cops Charity Grid Game

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — The Camp Lejeune Marines defeated the Camp Atterbury Cardinals 41-0 last night in the first Zavi Shrine Bowl football game for the benefit of crippled children

More than 5,000 fans saw the North Carolina Marines open up in the second half to outclass the Indiana soldiers, after a fairly even first half

Carl Smith of Washington Court House, last year's Associated Press high school Back-of-the-Year, led the soldiers' offense but could not score.

These Days

By George Sokolsky

In all the discussion of the Harry Dexter White case, little is said about White's stupendous operations. This man had risen to an extraordinary position in the Department of the Treasury of the United States principally because his first chief, Henry Morgenthau, Jr., was not a technician in the field.

SOKOLSKY

During the period of World War II, many problems arose which required more knowledge and experience than Morgenthau possessed. A group of skilled technicians and economists were brought into the department through White's influence

-:-

THIS GROUP, consisting of White, Harold Glasser, Charles Kramer, William Ludwig Ullman, Victor Perlo, Nathan Gregory Silvermaster, Virginius Frank Coe, William Henry Taylor, Solomon Adler, and a few others on lower levels, was able to control Treasury policies which affected not only this but other countries.

They combined with Alger Hiss in the State Department, Lauchlin Currie and Michael Greenberg in the White House; William Remington and Michael Lee in the Department of Commerce, and others in other departments.

This interlocking of forces gave them a strength far beyond anything imaginable outside the government.

WHITE ORGANIZED the Bretton Woods Conference, which developed the give-away program Bretton Woods came up with a plan for an International Monetary Fund and a plan for an International Bank for Reconstruction and Development (World Bank).

Into the International Monetary Fund, the United States agreed to put up $2,750,000,000, or 31 per cent; into the Bank, the United States put up $3,175,000,000, or 35 per cent.

These agencies were intended to develop great economic power, the Fund dominating, to a degree, the currencies of the world

This is not the place to discuss the nature either of the Fund or the Bank, except to say that whoever ran them could affect tremendously the economics of the entire world.

THEY COULD control the value of the American dollar. Harry Dexter White organized the International Monetary Fund and was its U. S. executive director. Virginius Frank Coe became its secretary and was succeeded by William Henry Taylor, both of whom were named in Attorney General Brownell's testimony.

For a century or more, China's currency had been stable, although as the price of silver rose, increasing amounts of silver were exported to the United States, leaving China with nothing but valueless paper money

The United States Treasury agreed to assist China to stabilize her currency Harry Dexter White, Lauchlin Currie, Harold Glasser, Charles Kramer, Solomon Adler and others got into the act.

In a period of disastrous inflation, these Treasury aides and advisers helped further to wreck China's currency.

IT WAS THIS that paved the way for the Communist conquest of China. There can be no question but that investigation will prove that Americans helped the Chinese Communists

The so-called Morgenthau Plan is now costing the United States billions of dollars. We now know that it was designed to wreck Germany and to keep that country under Russian control.

The original Morgenthau Plan, entitled "Program to Prevent Germany from Starting a World War III," clearly eliminates the United States from Germany:

"Although the United States would have full military and civilian representation on whatever international commission or commissions may be established for the execution of the whole German program, the primary responsibility for the policing of Germany and for civil administration in Germany should be assumed by the military forces of Germany's continental neighbors. Specifically, these should include Russian, French, Polish, Czech, Greek, Yugoslav, Norwegian, Dutch and Belgian soldiers.

"Under this program United States troops could be withdrawn within a relatively short time."

THE PLAN further provided:

"The complete demilitarization of Germany in the shortest possible period of time after surrender. "This means completely disarming the German army and people (including the removal or destruction of all war material), the total destruction of the whole German armament industry, and the removal or destruction of other key industries which are basic to military strength."

It is now fairly well, but not finally, established that this same group of men, of whom Harry Dexter White was the leader, presented this plan to Henry Morgenthau, Jr, who in turn handed it to Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill at the Quebec Conference.

Henry Morgenthau, Jr., ought to testify under oath concerning the origin of this disastrous barbarity

These are three of many examples of the machinations of this dangerous group who worked under a cover-up.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

CLEVELAND

The political temperature went away below freezing when Secretary of State John Foster Dulles entered the cavernous CIO convention hall here.

RIESEL

During Walter Reuther's polite introductory words, the militant labor leaders who had been ripping into President Eisenhower and American industry for nearly a week, cheered the names of Gen George Marshall and Dean Acheson. For Dulles, they had a few boos, scattered applause and a deep freeze in vivid contrast to the warm greetings the secretary of state received at the AFL convention recently

The CIO's 700 top leaders unfroze a little for President Eisenhower's second cabinet member, who flew in with Dulles, He was James Mitchell. The first Republican secretary of labor to address a CIO convention — which had until this year lived all its turbulent life under Democratic presidents.

DESPITE THE FROST, both Dulles and Mitchell asked the CIO for support, diplomatically pointing out that all life is a compromise with perfection.

Then in plain talk they reminded CIO that there had been an election The Republicans had won it.

For the first time the nation, as well as the CIO delegates to the 15th constitutional convention, were also told that the administration had finally worked out the basis for a definite labor program And, at least to this reporter, it seemed that President Eisenhower's envoy, Jim Mitchell, was saying, we'd like you to work with us, we're ready to make some changes, Take it or leave it. But this is what we believe.

THERE WOULD no longer be any "back stair" for labor leaders into the White House as "was the case too often in the past," the labor secretary told the grimly quiet convention.

"This body would be like a flock of ostriches, with their heads buried in the sand if it did not, in its deliberations, take account of the fact that something in the air has changed," Mitchell said, with his old charm and new firmness.

"We have had what is as close as we can come in America to a national referendum.

"The very least that can be said about it is that a majority of our people — and there must have been many CIO members among them — changed their attachment from the record and policies of the previous administrations to support Dwight D. Eisenhower."

THEN MITCHELL proceeded to make some enemies on both sides of the labor front. He warned industry that the administration was attempting to work out a formula which would raise the nation's minimum wage by law and spread it to cover some 41,000,000 more people

By going from 75 cents to $1.00 an hour this increase would add billions a year to the country's wage bill — and no doubt antagonize many businessmen.

On the labor side, he said of course that he was opposed to repeal of the Taft-Hartley law, but the White House was ready to make a number of changes in the law — not any "magic" number like 19 (referring to the amendments which ex-Labor Secretary Martin Durkin tried to push through before his resignation.; But still changes, Then he laid it on the line.

-:-

OBVIOUSLY speaking for the White House and its special advisers, Mitchell revealed that:

The administration would absolutely not leave itself powerless to handle national emergency strikes such as the last steel stoppage and coal walkouts.

In what seemed to me to be a reference to one of Durkin's proposals that a union member be expelled and fired from his job if he revealed "confidential" union information, Mitchell said: "I am opposed to any proposal which would make it easier for Communists or racketeers to control labor organizations, and I am opposed to treating a Communist problem solely as a labor union problem."

THE LABOR SECRETARY also opposed any proposal which encouraged "unions or union officials to be irresponsible" or which would give employers the chance to "escape their obligations to bargain collectively" or "which would make a federal law a device for breaking or undermining unions."

He also objected to any measure which "in essence defeats the demonstrated will and desires of the majority of the working people," which he seemed to interpret as endorsement of the Taft-Hartley law.

Yet he said he would support "every reasonable proposal for amending" the law which meets the administration's desire to get out of labor disputes as much as possible

Mitchell said he expected to lose friends He did But everybody now knows where everybody stands For the first time.

Three Post Wins

Marion County Cagers Prepare for Loop Race

Marion County high school cage teams warmed up for the opening of the County League title chase next week with games last night against out-of-county foes.

Three of the Marion County teams posted impressive wins while two others absorbed defeats.

Waldo, defending Marion County League champ, downed Scioto Valley of Delaware County 54-42. Claridon bowled over Edison 53-45 in Morrow County and Prospect blasted Delaware County's Radnor 60-43.

Pleasant absorbed a 68-48 loss at the hands of Mt. Victory in Hardin County and Green Camp was defeated by Chesterville of Morrow County.

Prospect Hoopsters Sink Radnor 60-43

Prospect ripped Radnor 60-43 last night in a warm up for the opening of the Marion County League chase Wednesday night at Caledonia. The Prospect reserves started the rout with a 41-29 decision in the preliminary game.

Prospect jumped into an early lead and increased its margin steadily throughout the game Bob Rodgers and Bob Mathews dumped in 17 and 15 points to lead the attack. Maxwell topped the Radnor scoring with 18 while Thompson added 10. Bruce Emery dumped in 15 points for the winners in the reserve game.

Beard, Queen Contest Highlight Martel's Sesquicentennial Event

After tonight some of Martel's bearded residents can shave again

The beard-growing has been going on for weeks now in preparation for Martel's Sesquicentennial celebration tonight. One of the features of the program will be a beard contest when prizes will be given for the longest and the neatest beards.

The Sesquicentennial program is being sponsored by the Martel Community Club and proceeds from the event will go to the community's school.

It should prove to be a pretty colorful scene when the program opens at 7 p.m. tonight at the school, for the residents are urged to wear costumes appropriate for the celebration of Ohio's 150th birthday. Prizes will also be given for the costumes.

Highlight of the evening will be the revelation and coronation of the Martel queen, who has been elected by students at the school. She will be one of five candidates, Jenny Shuster, eighth grader; Patricia Hill, freshman; Judith Fabian, sophomore; Lois Lyon, junior, or Mildred Roesh, senior.

The queen's coronation will follow a concert to be presented by the school band at 8 p.m Other attractions of the night will be an exhibit of articles 25 years or older with a prize being given for the oldest one, concessions, a cakewalk and door prizes.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to attend.

The last project undertaken by the Community Club was the refurnishing and remodeling of the school cafeteria, which was completed last February.

Four Injured In County and City Accidents

Two Children Hurt When Struck by Car On W. Columbia St.

Four people, including two Marion children, were injured in the nine accidents in the city and county reported this morning by police and the Marion station of the state highway patrol.

The injured children were Charles Webster, 4, and his sister Carolyn, 7, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Webster of 329 Park Blvd.

They were injured when struck by a car driven by Chester Earl Lieby, 32, of 367½ Chestnut St., as they crossed W. Columbia St. at Park Blvd. at 4:03 p.m. yesterday.

Both were taken to Marion City Hospital. Charles suffered bruises and possible head injuries and was reported in "fair" condition this morning. Carolyn was released after treatment for a cut on the left cheek, bruises and abrasions.

Children Crossing Street

The children were crossing from the southeast to the northeast corner when east-bound Lieby car struck them, police said. The driver was not held by police.

A Cleveland woman is in city hospital this morning with head injuries resulting from a one-car accident on Mt Vernon Ave at 10:37 p.m. yesterday. She is Mrs. Loretta Catherine Crissinger, 24. There was no report on her condition at the hospital this morning

She was injured when a car she was driving left the street and struck two trees in front of 948 Mt. Vernon Ave. The car was extensively damaged in the right front and right rear ends.

Two vehicles were slightly damaged in an accident on E. Center St. at 739 yesterday at 12:40 p.m. Driver of the car was Floyd C. Fox, 57, of near Cardington, and the driver of the pickup truck was William Kohbarger, 41, of 379 N. State St.

Auto Damaged

A car owned by Charley W. Miller, of Twin Oaks Trailer Camp, was moderately damaged on the left side when it was struck by a hit-and-run driver while parked at 801 Bellefontaine Ave. at 1:11 this morning.

Because of inconclusive evidence, two accidents were not classified by police as hit-and-run although in each case one of the drivers was unknown.

In an accident reported at 1:50 p.m. yesterday, a car owned by Ruth Price of 273 Reed Ave. was damaged in the rear bumper while parked on W. Center St. in front of the Household Finance office.

No damage was reported in an accident on S. Prospect St., just south of W. Center St., at 9:10 p.m. yesterday. A car driven by Dick Haines, 23, of 473 Park Blvd., was heading south when it was struck by a car coming west out of an alley next to the city parking lot.

Driver Injured, Arrested

A Richwood driver injured in an auto accident south of Marion this morning was taken to City Hospital for treatment, then to Marion City prison on a charge of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquors.

Russell Ross, 28, of Richwood was cited to appear in Municipal Court today to answer the charge His car ran off State Route 4 this morning at 2 15 striking a high tension pole owned by the Ohio Edison Co. The pole and wires carrying 15,000 volts of electricity were knocked to the ground.

Patrol reports show considerable damage was done to the auto. Ross was taken to City Hospital by patrolmen. He was treated for a laceration of the forehead, then taken to Marion city prison to await hearing today.

A spokesman at the Ohio Edison Co. said this morning repair work on the pole would be done sometime today.

Another driver involved in an accident Friday evening was cited to appear in court. Richard A. Stansbery, 19, of Upper Sandusky was charged with driving to the left of the center.

Stansbery was arrested after his car went off the left side of State Route 529, about one mile south of Route 95 at 7:30 p.m. He was southbound at the time. His car struck some shrubs and bushes, doing extensive damage to the vehicle. The driver was not injured.

3 Brothers in Crash

A trek to South Carolina started off on the wrong foot for three brothers and their families from Detroit. State patrolmen from the Marion post reported this morning the three, driving in three different cars, were involved in an accident at 6:45 p.m. Friday.

The three cars, carrying a total of 17 persons were slightly damaged on U. S. Highway 23 about one mile south of Waldo.

It all started when Sanford Lowery, 30, pulled his car to the side of the road to close the hood. His brother, Vernie, 27, slowed down and prepared to stop behind the first car.

A third brother, Lonnie, 26, was unable to stop and struck the rear of Vernie's car, pushing it into the rear of Lonnie's car. Minor damage was done to all three vehicles.

If the delay and damage to the cars were not enough, when state patrolmen arrived to investigate the incident, they arrested all three drivers. They charged Sanford had parked on the highway, Vernie had failed to signal for a stop, and Lonnie was driving unsafely.

A call to Municipal Court Judge W. Dexter Hazen resulted in a special session of court. The three brothers were all given suspended fines and costs. The Judge said this morning he held the special session Friday night because the cars were filled with children and there would have been no facilities for them if the brothers had been forced to wait until this morning for hearing.

Dickenson

"Oh, I hope he doesn't go back in," said his mother "All we want is to have him back with us on the farm."

First Trip to Washington

It was the first trip to Washington for the Dickenson family, who hadn't been away from their home in the southwestern Virginia mountains in 25 years. They made the 450-mile trip to Washington by auto yesterday.

They'll stay in Washington a few days sightseeing and they hope to take their son home with them. He's due for a 30-day furlough.

Dickenson was one of 23 American soldiers who refused repatriation after the Korean truce was signed. He later changed his mind and asked neutral Indian guards to turn him back to the U.N. side. The other 22 still have given no indication of a change of heart.

Asked whether he thought any of these would follow his lead, Ed said:

"If they ever can get to them and give them explanations, I'm sure some of them will come back."

'He's a Good Boy'

"I brought Ed up to know the Lord," Mrs. Dickenson said. "He's a good boy, Ed is."

"That's right," Van Buren Dickenson said. "There's a Bible in every room of our farm. Ed knows what's right."

"We're going to take Ed home," his mother said. "That's what he needs more than anything else."

Down at Cracker's Neck, the folks were ready to give Ed an open-hearted welcome, but they didn't want any celebration for a "returning hero."

"Ed's no hero," a neighbor said "We don't want to see him treated like one. We'd rather see him come back quietly without any publicity and just settle down and forget what's happened."

There'll be one celebration though. That'll be at the Dickenson farm, and the big treat will be some southern fried chicken. It's a special request from Ed, himself.

The Rev. Don Evans of Topeka, Kan., disclosed that he visited Hall Nov. 1. The Presbyterian minister who said he attended grade school with Hall, said Hall "expressed the idea to me that he had committed something horrible and that he should rightfully be punished by society for having done such a deed."

TREES BURN

The Marion County sheriff's office was called Friday afternoon to investigate two trees which were on fire about half a mile west of New Bloomington on County Road 17. The investigating sheriff's deputy called the New Bloomington Fire Department to extinguish the blaze

2 Groups Hear News Analyst Of Cleveland

Dorothy Fuldheim Predicts World Will Avoid Another War

A prediction that the world will not have another all-out war, nor this country another depression was made by Miss Dorothy Fuldheim, Cleveland lecturer and news analyst, in tals in Marion Thursday to a group of clubwomen and the Marion Kiwanis Club.

She addressed the Kiwanis Club at a noon meeting in Hotel Harding and spoke at a program sponsored by the Marion Federation of Women's Clubs in the evening. Held in the YMCA, it was the first of two Federation meetings at which outstanding public speakers will appear.

In making her predictions, she explained she had come to these conclusions after a careful study of all the clues available

Miss Fuldheim has spent the last 20 years traveling throughout the world in search of news and the people who make the news, and has interviewed most of the world's political leaders during the last two decades At present, she is a news commentator on a Cleveland TV station.

Neither Will Use Bomb

The speaker told her Kiwanis audience she believes, as has been true in the past, since both United States and Russia have the H-bomb, there will be no all out war using this weapon. She added that she has found the Russians believe they will not have to go to war because an all-out depression will come in the United States, thus enabling them to "walk in and take over."

Miss Fuldheim made the statement, "We have 'bad citizens'," adding that they are those people who believe and say that a depression is sure to follow prosperity, talking of it constantly.

She added that this democracy is great because it has made it possible for the mass of the people to buy their needs and thus live on a high standard.

Miss Fuldheim told her audience that "our standard of living has not reached the peak," explaining this by stating that such items as the cars of today, laundry equipment for the housewife, air conditioning equipment and like things certainly have not been used and promoted to the utmost.

Federation Talk

In her Federation talk she said every so often in history there is a change in military strategy, and citing the tactics of Cleopatra in wooing Mark Anthony to her side in the war between Rome and Alexandria, she stated that never before has there been such a tactical change as with the atom bomb.

Because Russians are not familiar with our kind of capitalism they believe that all they have to do is wait and there will be an economic collapse in this country, she said in discussing the economic problem. This will not happen she believes, because of our dynamic production which produces wages enabling families to maintain a standard of living which can go up and up.

Mrs. Lester Huhn, program chairman, presided and following greetings by Mrs J. Edwin Probst, president of the Federation, Roger Jamison played a group of modern and classical piano numbers.

Miss Fuldheim was introduced to the Kiwanis Club by Edwin L. Mitchell

Junior Kiwanians

Introduced as Junior Kiwanians were Dan Merchant, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Merchant, 501 N. Prospect St., and Ted Kilbury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Kilbury, 267 N. Prospect St., from St. Mary Parochial School, and Doug Bibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Bibler, 269 E. George St., and Jerry Emery, son of Mr and Mrs Paul R. Emery, 680 Windsor St., from Harding High School.

Among the guests were Miss Peg Bacon and Miss Jean Brown. During the meeting, Harold Fralich, named Sultan of the Junior Service Guild Follies of 1953, presented the savings bond he won to the club

Other guests were Arthur Haas, general secretary of the Marion YMCA, and Kevin Krigbaum, U. S. Navy, home on leave

Next week's meeting will be on Wednesday because of the Thanksgiving Day holiday on Thursday.

Thursday night, Lester L. Dickey, president, and a group of about 16 members attended the Seventh Division Council meeting in Galion

Inhalator Squad Aids Marion Asthma Victim

One inhalator call and one smoke scare were handled Friday night by the Marion Fire Department The inhalator call was received at 11 10 p.m.

Firemen took the apparatus to 581 Thompson St. where Mrs. Anna Seiter of 585 Thompson St was suffering from asthma. After using the inhalator successfully for 25 minutes, firemen sent her to City Hospital in a Boyd ambulance.

At 9 13 p.m. the fire chief was called to 319 Franklin St. where the furnace of David Swartz had clogged, filling the house with smoke. Trucks were not called, and no loss was reported.

THE MacMURRAYS

Musical Evangelist Will Lead Revival At Calvary Church

J. Roy MacMurray of Union City, Pa., radio and television musical evangelist, and Mrs. MacMurray, will be the guest workers for a "Crusade for Christ" beginning at Calvary EUB Church in Marion Monday night. The pastor, Rev. Clyde R. Wendell, will be the preacher for the special meetings.

Mr MacMurray, known as "America's renowned cornet technician," plays eighteen musical instruments. Included in his collection is a 22-inch "triumphal trumpet," a three-valved creation of nineteenth century craftsmanship

Associated with Homer A. Rodeheaver at Winona Lake Bible Conference each summer, he is a composer and arranger of sacred and classical numbers and is considered an outstanding conductor of choral and congregational siging, and concert bands. He appears frequetly at high school, college, and institutional assembly programs.

Mrs. MacMurray, contralto soloist and secretary to her husband, directs a Children's Rhythm Hour in their campaigns each day after school classes. A part of the work of the MacMurrays also is presentation of sacred musical dramas. Services of the special effort here will be each night at 7.30.

Strike

has halted production, but the company claims large numbers of union workers are back on the job and planes are being produced.

Must Accept Burden

In Judge Harter's decision he said:

"If this union or any union wishes to have the economic benefits of a strike, as guaranteed by the national labor relations act, the union must accept burdens with the benefits. One burden is liability for breach of the peace and the laws of Ohio."

The union claimed Tuesday's incidents were spontaneous and against union orders. The union sponsored a radio broadcast urging members to comply with Judge Harter's orders.

Judge Harter set aside a previous suspended fine of $20,000 against the union for earlier violations of his order. He accepted the union's arguments that it had not been given an opportunity to defend itself against the earlier charges.

The union planned special television programs today and tomorrow in Columbus to "focus the issues."

Mrs. Charles Campbell On Musicale Program

Mrs. Charles Campbell, pianist of the Marion Lecture-Recital Club, will present another in a series of Twilight Musicales, a 15-minute program Sunday at 3 45 p.m. over Station WMRN. The programs are projects of the Lecture-Recital Club

Mrs. Campbell, a teacher in the Marion public schools, came to Marion from Mansfield recently. She had been an instructor of music in the elementary schools in Mansfield.

Her numbers will include "Que Lente," Debussy. "Impromptu," Rheinholt, "Caprice Viennoise," Kreisler; "Altwein," Godowsky.

The programs are arranged by Mrs Lewis Wills, radio chairman for the Club.

Four Drivers Arrested By Marion Policemen

A Dearborn, Mich., man was arrested on a charge of driving while intoxicated in one of four arrests for traffic violations reported by the police this morning.

He was James Henry Baker, 25. In Municipal Court this morning, he pleaded not guilty and posted $150 bond for a future hearing. He was arrested on N. Main St. at 9:07 last night.

Other arrests reported by police were:

Glen Richard Millisor, 21, 1084½ Uncapher Ave., insufficient brakes. Henry Harold Jackson, 31, 37 Thompson St., having open bottle of intoxicating beverage in car, and Donald Jackson Dye, 20, of Centerburg, O., speeding. All were cited for appearance in Municipal Court today.

Ruzzo Elected Head of Family Service Group

Review of Agency's Work Presented by Executive Secretary

Officers headed by Judge Edward J Ruzzo as president were re-elected at the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Family Service Society Thursday night at the YMCA. Mrs. Doris C. Maxwell, executive secretary, reviewed the work of the agency, and committees for the coming year were named by the president.

Re-elected with Judge Ruzzo were, Dr. Frederick W Rea, vice president; Mrs. Ashley Booth, secretary; James C. Sloan, treasurer.

Committees named are: Judge Ruzzo, Dr. Rea, Mrs. Booth, Mr. Sloan, and Edwin J. Kinter, executive committee; Norman Fogt, Mrs. Celia Fay, Mrs. Booth, personnel. Miss Vivian Hall, Dr. Robert E. Logsdon, Very Rev. William J. Spickerman, V. F., Mrs E. N. Salzman, Dr. Robert W. Weimer, Mrs. Mary Axthelm and Mrs. Mildred Schuetz, casework; Mrs. John Waddell, Ellis H. Oiler, Leonard Elliot, George W. Schetzer, Mrs. Celia Fay, public relations; James C. Sloan, Ray Beverly and Edwin J. Kinter, finance; Mr. Kinter, J. E. Oliphant, Mrs. Salzman and Mrs. Axthelm, office and furnishings; Ray Beverly, Rev. H L. Ludwig and Mrs. Fay, nominating

In her report Mrs Maxwell reviewed the work of the agency noting that 220 applications for service had been made to the agency and that the major problem presented was marital difficulty. It also was noted that requested for hlep with problems arising between child and parent and between the aged parent and his children are beginning to come in increasing numbers to the agency. While the agency is not able to meet economic need, it is equipped to help ease the unhappy and often strained family relationships which sometimes exist, the secretary pointed out.

The society has a membership of 233, Mrs. Maxwell's report shows. The membership is open to anyone interested in a family service program. It is this group that names the board of directors as its representatives and is given the authority to govern and shape the policies of the agency.

Judge Ruzzo expressed the opinion that the membership should be kept in close touch with the agency program to insure an informed, alert voting body, and plans to bring this about were delegated to the interpretation and public relations committee The group will report at the January meeting.

that anyone under 16 must be accompanied by an older person.

Deer permits will soon be received and will be on sale at Hinton's and Vance's Sporting Goods stores here, at the Howard Bailey Hardware store in LaRue and from Harry Lauer, fur dealer at Prospect, Neimeyer said. The deer season runs three days beginning Dec. 17.

Neimeyer said hunting licenses were available from license dealers all over the county. The resident licenses cost $2. Non-resident licenses, which cost $15, are available from the clerk of courts office in the Courthouse, or at Vance's or Hinton's. Deer permits are $5

No Garbage Pickups

If the Ohio hunting season opens Monday, the City Department of Sanitation will make no pickups in the residential district on that day, Safety-Service Director Ralph E. Forrest announced today For the remainder of the week, all pickups will be late. There will be no pickups Thursday, Thanksgiving Day.

Pentecostal Churches Plan Meeting Monday

Four churches of the Marion Pentecostal Fellowship will meet Monday night at the Pentecostal Church of Christ on Fountain St. The speaker will be Rev. Thomas Dulley of Akron, in charge of young people's Pentecostal district work.

Taking part with the host church will be the Church of God, the local Church of God of America, and the Assembley of God Church Time of the meeting will be 7.45

Morrow County Driver Injured in Auto Accident

An automobile driver was slightly injured in an accident in Morrow County this morning investigated by highway patrolmen from the Marion post.

At 1:15 this morning, the car driven by Russell Adcock, 44, of near Mt. Gilead ran off State Route 95 in Edison. The car struck a tree on the south side of the street, doing considerable damage to the car.

Adcock was taken to Morrow County Hospital where he was treated for a bruised left eye and bruised chest.

Fume, Smoke Haze Continue To Plague N.Y.

NEW YORK (AP)—A four-day concentration of city fume and smoke haze continued today to curtain and harass coastal areas from New England to Virginia.

Health Department authorities in the New York Metropolitan area and New Jersey were keeping a close watch on death reports to see if the twilight-gray "smaze" would add to fatalities.

Hundreds of persons have complained of scratchy throats and irriated eyes and noses, with chronic asthma sufferers being the worst hit.

Skyscraper Blotted Out

Manhattan's famed skyscrapers often appeared blotted out in the gloom.

The unseasonably warm weather —yesterday's high was 69 9—has caused this unusual situation· A layer of warm air has formed a ceiling over colder air at ground level, with the upper air acting as a lid to keep fumes and smoke from dispersing. The Weather Bureau terms this an "inversion" of the usual process

The only relief in sight was a forecast of "some rain beginning tonight or Sunday." A cold wave moving east from Chicago could break up the condition, but that might take several more days.

Airliners experienced only minor delays during the daylight hours yesterday. However, by midnight last night all incoming and outgoing flights at La Guardia and Idlewild airports were canceled.

Ceiling 'Zero'

Spokesman at both fields said the ceiling was "zero" at 4 a.m. (EST) and no activity could be contemplated until much later in the morning.

Many observers have started comparing the fume and smoke haze with the smog in Great Britain last year which killed 12,000 persons.

But Dr. Morris B. Jacobs, director of the New York City Air Pollution Control Laboratory, said the gray pall hanging over the area was not smog, which is a combination of smoke and fog.

"In addition to soot," Jacobs said, "the haze includes particles of such things as fly ash, dust, earth, tars, asphalt, grit, loose paint from buildings and windows, rubber rubbled off tires by friction, and anything loose and likely to blow upward."

The accumulation of "smaze" was felt even in residential Westchester County and in sections of Long Island

City Group Hears Protest on Request For Power Station

The City Planning Commission will continue to study the request of the Ohio Edison Co. to build a sub-station south of Mt. Vernon Ave. on the Laura A. Zachman property, Safety-Service Director Ralph E. Forrest reported this morning

The commission considered the company's request at a meeting yesterday afternoon. At that time it received a petition from residents of the area protesting the granting of a permit for the construction of the sub-station. The petition contains 36 signatures.

At its meeting yesterday the commission granted two requests for permissive use.

One was granted to Mrs Blanche Willits of 315 S. Main St. to operate a rest home at 333 N Prospect St. The other was granted to Lester Reece of 176 Glad St to construct a wood-working shop at the rear of his home.

Galion Girl Struck By Car Improving

GALION — The condition of Barbara Callender, 13-year-old daughter of Mr and Mrs. Raymond Callender, who was struck and run over by a truck Thursday afternoon is reported as favorable.

She is a patient at Galion City Hospital where she is being treated for contusions and abrasions of both legs and a sprained back. X-rays taken at the hospital Friday did not reveal any broken bones.

Barbara was run over by a pick-up truck driven by Claude Britton, 72, of Galion at 4 45 p.m., Thursday, as she and two girl companions were crossing Grove Avenue on their way from school. The truck traveling north was making a left-hand turn

H. C Kellermeyer. Following the ceremony the couple left on a short wedding trip. They will reside west of Upper Sandusky.

500 Attend Final Play Performance

Final performance of Harding High School's junior class play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," was attended by approximately 500 persons Friday night at the school auditorium.

In leading roles as Cornelia Otis Skinner and Emily Kimbrough, two young ladies who set out on a European trip to prove they were mature, were Judy Street and Janet Roberts. Charles Presar, Harding speech teacher, directed the three-act comedy.

Following the final act, Mr. Presar was presented with a gift from the entire cast and play committee members on the stage. Later, a reception arranged by the usher committee was held in the speech room of the school for the cast, committee members and parents.

Approximately 400 persons attended the opening night performance of the play Thursday.

Marion Engineer Depot Adopts New Accounting System

Marion Engineer Depot officials today announced a new accounting plan is being set up at the local Depot.

Called the Financial Property Accounting, the new plan is being imitated throughout the Army Corps of Engineers.

The new system involves the cost dollar accounting of each item in storage at the Depot.

A group of three persons from the Pittsburgh, Pa., office of the certified public accounting firm of Arthur Young and Co. of New York City have been here gradually installing the new system for the past three months.

The local installation will be on the new system by Dec 1.

Previously, Depot accounting was done only on an item basis without regard to cost.

The new system will permit the production of financial information relating to inventory balances and property transactions and will promote more efficient management of supply operations. It will also make possible more accurate control over inventories and procurement, Depot officials say.

Club Plans Yule Party

D J. Sansotta was named chairman for the annual family Christmas party at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Exchange Club Friday at Hotel Harding.

A tape recording of the speech of Myers Y. Cooper, given at the presentation of the Freedom Shrine to Harding High School, was presented for members who were unable to attend the event. It was announced a meeting for Friday, Nov. 27 had been cancelled because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Fred Schultz was in charge of the meeting.

tion needed for the families and beneficiaries of men who have been or will be declared dead The regulations, which also apply to such survivors of all servicemen, include:

1. When a survivor is notified that a serviceman has died as the result of combat, the beneficiary will be furnished an application form for the payment of a gratuity. This gratuity is equal to six months pay at the rate prevailing when the man was declared dead

2 Survivors are entitled to whatever portion of a missing man's pay that accumulates while he is missing and which has not been previously allocated, such as for allotments or savings bonds.

3. Immediately after a serviceman is declared dead, the Veterans Administration will be notified. The Veterans Administration will then help survivors collect whatever government life insurance is due them.

Police Chief Coon Warns Bikes Should Be Locked

Police Chief Thomas B Coon today issued a warning to local bicycle owners to guard and lock their bicycles.

He pointed out that during the past 30 days there has been a marked increase in the number of bicycle thefts, especially in the downtown area.

Some of the stolen bikes have been found, he said, but in most cases they have been stripped of accessories, wheels and other parts.

Old Gas Range Good Start for Second Kitchen

When you buy a new modern gas range, a good idea is to move the old one to the basement as the nucleus of a secondary kitchen. This is the advice of many home planning experts.

In the basement the old stove will come in handy for prepar- buffet suppers for guests in the recreation room. The extra range is convenient too when there is canning to do and for keeping gamey food odors out of the living areas of the house.

Some of the newer building materials such as prefinished wall-panels make it easy to remodel the basement into enclosed areas such as recreation rooms, laundries, and the secondary kitchen. These colorful panels come in sizes up to four feet by twelve feet and are easy to apply to wall and ceiling surfaces in such basement areas.

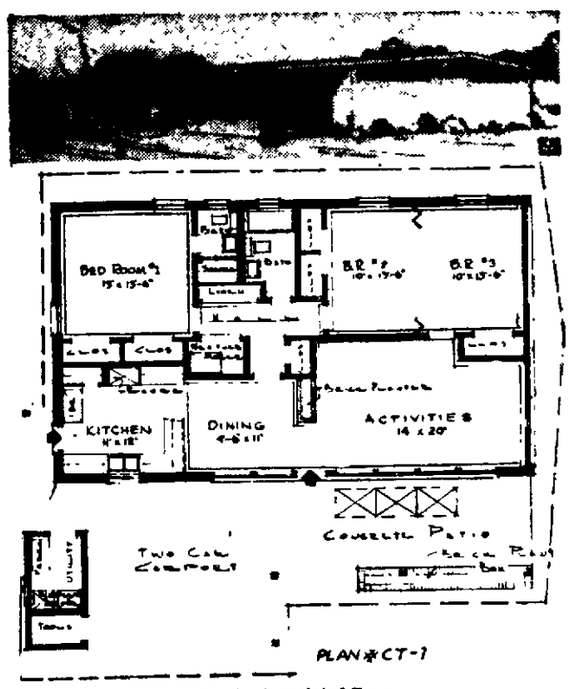
Many American families will find that moving the old kitchen range to the basement will be all that is necessary to start a remodelling program which will add many square feet to the useable living space in the house.

recent report by the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association states that for the first eight months of this year, 1,431,400 new gas ranges were shipped, a 4 4 per cent increase over the same period of last year.

MAN GETS LIFE SENTENCE

CLEVELAND (AP) — Russell L. Davis, 27, was given a life sentence yesterday for killing his girl friend, Mrs. Helen Kennedy, 31, by striking her on the head with a concrete block Sept 26. Davis pleaded guilty in common pleas court to second degree murder.

House Has Family Room



By The Associated Press

AN ACTIVITIES ROOM suppiants the usual living room in this home designed for the living requirements of the modern family. Two children's bedrooms can be separated by a folding partition, as indicated on the plan. This is a house designed for year-round air conditioning with engineers of the Carrier Corp., in cooperation with architect Charles B. Witchell, 2214 Cedar Springs, Dallas, Tex. It is one of three variations built and sold in Carr P. Collins' Plymouth Park development at Dallas for less than $13,000 with land.

Aid for the Ailing House

By ROGER WHITMAN

Q: We have just moved into our new home and have an oil-fired hot-air furnace with no humidifier. We called the builder to check on this and he advised us not to put one on for the first year of heating. Could you tell us if there is any reason for waiting? Or if it would harm any to have one put in now?

A: Ordinarily it is not necessary to use a humidifier in a newly constructed house because of the moisture given off by new concrete and fresh plaster. The use of a humidifier would only tend to increase the moisture content of the air in the house. It would do no harm, however, to have a humidifier installed, but I would advise that the unit be kept shut off for the first season.

Q: Last November we had a driveway put in and the contractor used gray cement without our knowing it. Now the cement has turned white in patches and is very spotty. Is there anything that can be used to bleach it out, as we have one white ribbon and the other is a dark gray

A: I am sorry to say that it is not possible to bleach out the natural gray color in concrete. The only thing I could suggest, for uniform color, is to paint the concrete with a rubber-base floor paint.

Q: We are building an addition on our cottage intended for year-round use. It will include utility room, bath, and clothes closet. The addition will be on a concrete floor slab. We intend to use asphalt tile and would like to know if there is something special that first must be done to the cement. How long should the concrete be allowed to dry before putting down the floorcovering?

A: At least a couple of months should be allowed to elapse before asphalt tile is put down. No special treatment or preparation is necessary other than providing a clean, grease-free surface. In order to eliminate the possibility of condensation (sweating) of the floor area and possibly at the baseboards, it is advisable to insulate the outer edges of the concrete slab. Information on the subject can be obtained in booklet form from the Small Homes Council, University of Illinois, Urbana, Ill. The cost of the booklet is 10 cents. I hope you intend to install a sufficient amount of radiation or hot air outlets to keep the new addition warm. The lack of heat, with moisture given off when showers and baths are taken during the winter, may cause condensation to occur in various parts of the structure.

Box for Cigarettes Good Project for Home Workshops

By The Associated Press

Guests always appreciate the finger-tip hospitality of the host who provides well-stocked cigarette boxes at convenient locations.

If the host has made the cigarette box himself, it provides a good conversation piece as well.

The cigarette box shown in these adjoining illustrations is simple to make, even for a beginner.

This box has a bowling ball motif for the lid handle. The box is one of several included in a booklet "One Evening Projects," published by the Delta Power tool Division of the Rockwell Manufacturing Co.

The box is made from a solid block of wood The lid is semi-transparent plastic (Trafford Sapphire) rabbeted on all four sides to fit the box. The bowling pins and ball can be turned on a lathe from brass or plastic The ball is 11-16th inch in diameter. Dimensions of the box are shown.

Fostoria Man, 20, Gets Life Sentence

BALTIMORE (AP)—Roger Dennis Wyley, 20, of Fostoria, Ohio, whose only defense was that he was unarmed and didn't fire a shot, was sentenced to life imprisonment for the slaying of a policeman in a gun battle here.

The state acknowleged Wyley was unarmed and hiding behind a door during the shooting in a tavern. But it contended he was equally guilty under the law with a companion, Beauford Saunders 20, of Cleveland, who died in the fight.

The policeman, Sgt. James L. Scholl, was wounded fatally by Saunders when Scholl and Patrolman Thomas Alford, surprised the two men in the tavern the night of July 20.

A criminal court jury convicted Wyley of first degree murder without capital punishment.

PIKE BIDS NEARLY DONE

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Turnpike Commission says all 241 miles of the Northern Ohio Turnpike except four miles near Elyria are under construction or have been advertised for bids. Progress on the Elyria section is being held up because of disagreement between the commission and the city on location of the road.

TAKE CITIZENSHIP OATHS

BUCYRUS—Four Bucyrus women and one Crestline woman became United States citizens in ceremonies conducted here Wednesday in Crawford County Common Pleas courtroom. The oath of allegiance was given by Clerk of Courts G. William Dustman before Judge John C. Carroll. The new citizens are: Mrs Cleo Candel, Mrs. Harold McAdams, Mrs. Walter R. Mead and Mrs Clinton Hartwell, all of Bucyrus and Mrs. Teresa Mary Kibler of Crestline. Mrs. Candel, 25, Mrs. Mead, 26, and Mrs. Hartwell, 59, all are natives of Great Britain. Mrs McAdams, 37, is from Australia and Mrs. Kibler, 59, is a native of Yugoslavia.

YOUR HOME . . . Today and Tomorrow

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

In many of the modern homes under construction today, builders have eliminated the mantel-piece, or shelf, above the fireplace. There are several reasons for this one the fact that a mantel often dwarfed the living room. Leaving it out will make the room appear larger.

In most cases, the fireplace is now outlined with a heavy molding or frame. When this is done the brickwork is more obvious than when a mantel is used, and all of us know that with certain types of decoration and certain color schemes, common brick and even tapestry brick is not particularly a thing of beauty. That is the chief reason we so often see the fireplace brick painted in a modern or redecorated house.

Paint Discolors

Painting is prfectly all right as far as it goes, but it is apt to discolor from use of the fireplace The soundest idea is to face the brickwork with marble. It is cheaper to install than one might expect, and very easy for the householder to do himself.

To do this job yourself, first carefully measure the two front side walls of the fireplace and the top horizontal panel of brick The next step is to decide on the marble color and marking you want. With this established you can order the three slabs of marble cut to size. You will find many marble works in and about any fair-sized city.

Installation Easy

To install the slabs, buy a small package of Plaster of Paris, mix with water to a paste and spot several gobs of it on the brickwork. The marble slabs are then pressed against the plaster and held securely for a few minutes. The side slabs should be set first. After they are secure, which is only a matter of minutes the top slab can be set in place.

Plaster of Paris sets with great rapidity, so everything should be ready before it is mixed.

School Board at Galion Studies Adult Education

Special to The Star

GALION — A survey of Galion citizens who are interested in adult education, with evening classes, was authorized by the Galion Board of Education, at the November meeting, Thursday night.

Plans are to offer the classes after the first of the year.

The survey will be made by distributing mimeographed explanation of possible courses in industrial plants, and through newspapers. When the number of courses to be offered are decided upon, instructors will be sought to teach.

The exploratory list of courses being offered in the survey include: American government, arts and crafts, beginning sewing, shorthand review, elementary bookkeeping, correct English usage, business arithmetic, composition and creative writing, commercial law, public speaking, everyday physics, history, mechanical drawing, blueprint reading, metal shop, music appreciation, office practice, typing, fundamentals of salesmanship woman's physical education, woodworking, shop mathematics, biography of great Americans, discussion group of today's world, and building, buying and remodeling a home.

Grange Agrees With Benson, Aid Not Perfect

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP) — The National Grange and Secretary of Agriculture Benson were in agreement today that existing farm-aid legislation is far from perfect.

In resolutions adopted Thursday the Grange said it favors keeping present farm programs until desirable changes could be made without forcing agriculture to take an economic nosedive.

But it made plain that changes suggested by it and Benson could be made only after it is evident that they would contribute to farm prosperity and a maximum freedom from government control.

In a speech prepared for the New England Council in Boston today, Benson said a sound and prosperous agriculture cannot be built on "continuous subsidies from the federal Treasury which result in burdensome surpluses and loss of markets."

In his talk in Boston and before the Grange's 87th annual session last night Benson said that farm prosperity must depend on a strong demand for its products in the market place.

The farm organization suggested measures to achieve this—a two-price system, cooperation among growers, processors and distributors to sell surpluses, lowered trade barriers, an emergency food stamp plan to move extra supplies to dinner tables of the needy, and farm production payments.

A two-price system would offer extra supplies abroad at lower prices than those prevailing at home.

Baby Hippo at Columbus Zoo Refuses To Eat, Dies

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Like its famous mother, Snookie's baby was too stubborn for its own good.

The 75-pound, 3-day-old hippopotamus died of malnutrition yesterday after spurning Snookie's feeding attempts. It—Snookie wouldn't allow caretakers close enough to determine sex—was Snookie's third baby. One drowned. Mama—all 4,000 pounds of her—sat on the other.

Snookie became famous a few years ago with an eight-day sit-down strike while being transferred from Chicago to Columbus Zoo.

HIKES REGISTRATION FEE

KENT, Ohio (AP)—Kent State University has hiked its registration fee from $35 to $45 for students from Ohio and from $50 to $70 for out-of - state students. President George A. Bowman said the increase was needed to meet operating costs for which the state Legislature had not provided funds.

. . . better bathing, a radiant complexion
So clean feeling in the bath . . .
A refreshing beauty bath in water softer than rain in yours whenever you wish. A bath in the creamy, lasting, soft water suds is an experience you'll never forget. You'll feel every pore being thoroughly cleansed . . and the suds rinse off in a jiffy, leaving you feeling neatly clean all over
. . . and so saving, too.
SOAP. Thousands of households have proved that softened water saves soap—sometimes half, usually more. Ask to see our amazing soap test that proves just how much you can save
WATER HEATING. You save substantial amounts of fuel used for heating water—often as much as 30%—with softened water and scale free heating coils.
PLUMBING BILLS. You banish scale and clogged pipes when you have soft water service installed in your home. You also stop annoying faucet drips caused by scale. Saves repairs, too
With no more "BATHTUB-RING" . . .
The old fashioned but very familiar "bathtub-ring" is soap dirt. It is soap curd formed when soap tries to soften hard water. With soft water service there is no curd formed and no ring. Just think of the time and scouring powder you'll save when you clean the bath room.

NOTICE OF APPOINTMENT

Estate of Harvey E. Lust, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that Lillian Lust has been appointed and qualified as Executrix of the estate of Harvey E. Lust, late of Marion County, deceased.

Dated at Marion, Ohio, this 13th day of November, A.D. 1953.

Edward J. Ruzzo, Probate Judge, Marion County, Ohio.

Case No. 20263.
Nov. 14,21,28,1953.

LEGAL NOTICE

RESOLUTION IMPLEMENTING THE UNITED STATES PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE MILK ORDINANCE AND CODE, 1953 EDITION, RELATING TO MILK INSPECTION FEES, FOR THE CITY OF MARION, OHIO.

Be it resolved by the Board of Health of the Marion City Health District as follows:

SECTION 3-A. In order to defray the cost of inspection of dairy farms, milk processing plants, the inspection of milk and milk products, an inspection fee of 2c for each 100 lbs. of milk received by the distributor shall be charged to and paid by the distributor for all milk received, handled or used by said distributor; the said inspection charges shall be paid monthly on or before the 16th day of the month following the month for which the charge is made. Such inspection fee shall be collected by the "health commissioner" and turned in to the City Treasurer.

SECTION 3-B. This inspection fee will be in effect immediately upon adoption of said regulations. Each plant must make a report on a form as prescribed by the Health Commission, as of the last day of the month to the Clerk of the Board of Health, listing the total milk received, handled or used by said plant. In the event that the Board of Health is of the opinion that the books of a milk plant should be audited to determine the truth and accuracy of the monthly reports filed by said milk plant, then, and in that event the Board of Health shall have the right to audit the milk plant's books for the purpose of ascertaining the total milk received, handled or used by said plant, the expenses and costs of such an audit is to be charged against the milk plant whose books are so examined. Any falsification in reporting shall result in the revocation of the milk plant permit

SECTION 3-C. The failure of any milk dealer or distributor, for the period of more than thirty (30) days, to pay the required above inspection charges, or upon failure to comply with the above rules and regulations, shall be cause for the revocation or withdrawal of the permission granted such dealer or distributor to distribute milk and milk products in the City of Marion, Ohio, or to dispose of said products to others for distribution within the City of Marion.

This Resolution shall be in full force and effect at the earliest period allowed by law.

HAROLD F ROBINSON, President of the City Board of Health

Diving Boys, Morticians Fight For the Right To Wear Derbies

NASSAU, Bahamas (UP) — Certain circles in this Caribbean resort city are becoming increasingly concerned over just who should wear derbies—the island's native diving boys or its undertakers Both groups are vocal.

The diving boys, who used to have the bowlers but no longer do, say both their health and their dignity suffer. A"ects their pocketbooks, too

Seems passengers on incoming cruise ships throw coins at native boys wearing derbies Native boys without derbies however, are more likely to get waved at than thrown to—or at least so the story goes

The undertakers, on the other hand, claim certain prerogatives for themselves because they currently enjoy a monopoly with the hats. And there's no better reason, they say, why they—and not those upstart diving boys—should continue to wear them

The controversy began soon after the Nassau Development Board New York and bought 50 derbies and a local steamship line got together with the Salvation Army in into the islands As an act of goodwill, they gave them to the diving boys

Results were immediate Diving profits soared for the divers, sartorially splendid in their bathing trunks and derbies

The word however, got around —all the way around, in fact, to the undertakers.

It seems a shortage had developed in the local supply of silk toppers, which up to then had been standard equipment for formal mourning The undertakers decided the derbies would do as a substitute.

Adroit bartering followed, and soon they, and not the diving boys, had the derbies.

Results again were immediate Diving profits dwindled the divers grew increasingly unhappy, and after a while they protested They re still protesting

So the Development Board has entered into another compact with the steamship company, the Incres Nassau Line, which hopes to get a second batch of the hats through its New York agent the Home Lines Agency, and the Salvation Army office there

Capt Francesco Perilli master of the SS Nassau who brought the first consignment into the islands and thus set off the whole thing, has been assigned to ferry the hats again

"This time" he said 'We'll bring plugs toppers derbies opera hats—anything you can get away with at a funeral Maybe—just maybe—that will make them happy again"
